

The Cabot Calendar

OF CANADIAN HISTORY

Compiled by

Sara Mickle and Mary Agnes FitzGibbon.

Price, 50c.

From all sides come enthusiastic commendations of this Calendar, which Dr. Parkin terms "a credit to Canadian art, a study in Canadian history, and a stimulus to Canadian patriotism." The rush of orders from booksellers, school boards and private parties has made it necessary to issue a second and then a third edition—5,000 in all already. It is the Calendar of the year. Every Bookseller should get in a stock ample to meet the great demand that Christmas and the New Year are sure to bring.

OUR FALL PUBLICATIONS

- "Saddle, Sled and Snowshoe." Pioneering on the Saskatchewan in the Sixties. By John McDougall. Illustrated. $1.00
- "Walter Gibbs, the Young Boss." By F. W. Thomson. Illustrated. 1.25
- "Around the Camp-Fire." By Chas. G. D. Roberts. Illustrated. 1.25
- "In the Days of the Canada Company." The Story of the Settlement of the Huron Tract. By Robina and K. M. Lazars. Illustrated. 2.00
- "A Knight of the Nets." By Amelia F. Barr. 1.00
- "A Stormy Voyager." By Annie S. Swan. Illustrated. 1.25
- "Rural Rhymes and the Sheep Thief." By Eric Duncan, (Comox, B. C.) Morocco paper covers. 35
- "Mabel Gray and Other Poems." By Lyman C. Smith. 1.00
- "Overland to Cariboo." An Eventful Journey of 150 Canadian Pioneers to the Gold-fields of British Columbia in 1862. By Margaret McNaughton. Illustrated. 1.00
- "By Northern Lakes." Reminiscences of Life in Ontario Mission Fields. By W. W. Walker. 1.00
- "The Warden of the Plains." Stories of the Indians and Cowboys of the Canadian Northwest. By John Maclean, Ph. D. Illustrated. 1.25
- "Three Boys in the Wild North Land." By E. R. Young. Illustrated. 1.25
- "Rhymes of the Kings and Queens of England." By Mary Leslie. With 117 illustrations. Cloth, $1.00; half leather, gilt edges. 1.50

William Briggs,
PUBLISHER,

26-28 Richmond Street
West

TORONTO

NEW MUSIC.

KLEINE WELT (Little World) for piano. By Gustav Lange. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto. 75 cents

Too much cannot be said in praise of this admirable little collection of pieces for young players. It contains nine charming compositions, which are sure to interest and educate youthful students. Though exceedingly simple, they are written in such a musicianly manner and have such a pretty effect, that they create a desire for further study of good music. The volume well deserves the attention of teachers and the trade.

THE ELITE GUITAR METHOD. By Geo. F. Smedley. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto. One dollar

Mr. Smedley is well known as a successful teacher of the guitar, and he has put his most valuable ideas on guitar playing into this volume. The method is clear, simple and comprehensive, gives the beginner full instructions and leads him through a series of progressive studies until he is able to play a number of pretty amusements and standard solos.

OVER THE FENCE IS OUT. Song by Amelia McMillan.

I'M YOUR GIRL. Song by C. J. Reeves. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto

These two songs are published separately. If the first has any good point it is the refrain; the second is a "descriptive" song.

KING OF THE MIGHTY SEA. Song by S. T. Church. Whaley, Royce & Co. 50 cents

A happy, rollicking baritone or bass-song, that seems to bring a refreshing whiff of salt air with it.

VOICE OF ANGELS. Song by Hastings Weblyn Whaley. Royce & Co., Toronto. 40 cents.

A very pretty semi-sacred song of good melody and sentiment. It has a most winning refrain in 3-4 time; compass, E flat to F.

YOU AND CANOE. Song by M. de S. Weld. Whaley, Royce & Co., Toronto. 40 cents.

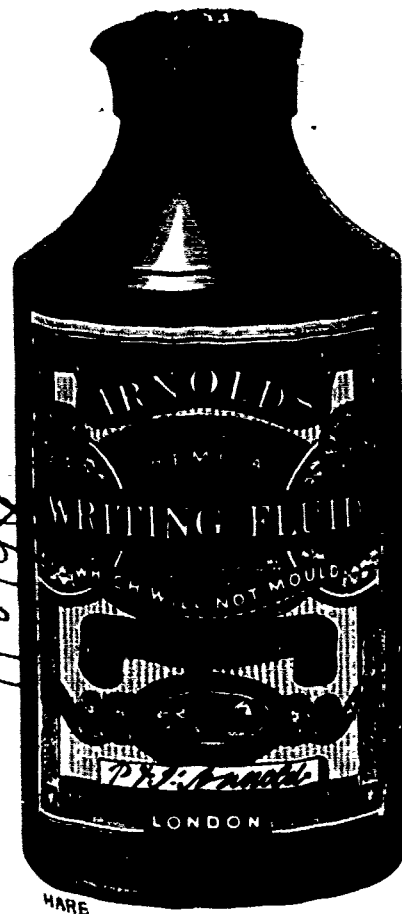

A thoroughly clever song, dedicated to the Royal Canadian Yacht Club. This alone will popularize it in Toronto, but there is no reason why it should not be well received anywhere.

THE REEF BELL. Song by Hartwell Jones. A. & S. Nordheimer, Toronto. 50 cents.

This is a very satisfactory sort of song. It is simple in style, and yet there is ample in it to enable any intelligent singer to produce a most pleasing effect.

The death of Alexander Scott, of Barrie, removes one of the best known stationers in the country. He was born in Edinburgh 63 years ago, and was in newspaper work at Richmond Hill before beginning the book and stationery business in Barrie.

Arnold's Inks

Chemical Blue-Black WRITING FLUID

Noted for its Fluidity and Permanency.

Blue-Black Copying Fluid

Will take 6 Good Copies.

BRILLIANT RED INK

For samples and prices, apply to the Wholesale Agents,

THE Brown Bros.

Limited.

64-68 King St. East,

TORONTO