NEW YORK AND ERIE RAILWAY.

For Canadian and other travellers, the New York and Erio Railway is one of the most expeditious routes; and for scenery, the most varied and delightful on this continent. There is no more attractive road to travel on in the world, the cars are so wide, easy riding and cleanly kept. A person has room enough to room around, spread out, rest, take comfort, lean back and enjoy himself. There are other good railroads in the world, but none whose other good running in the world, but note whose cars are so attractive as those of the broad gauge, well nameded and rather extensively known New York and Eric Railway. The sleeping cars are better than the bridal couches of our forefathers, and far ahead of what the ancient kings and queens enjoyed; and they thought they lived high. A train on this route arrives at and leaves the South side of the Dop. West end of Suspension Bridge, (Canada side,) so as to form a connection with all other trains calling at this station.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1872.

Fifth Year.

REPRESENTATIVE AND CHAMPION OF AMERICAN ART.

ALDINE: IHE

AN ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY JOURNAL claimed to be the

NANDSOMERT PAPER IN THE WORLD.

"Give my love to the artist workmen of THE ALDINE who are striving to make their professoid worthy of admication for boatty, as it has always been for usefulness."—Henry Ward Beecher.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temperary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscollany of pure, light, and graceful literature and a collection of pictures, the rarest spectures are actistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness as compared rivals of a similar class. THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unappreached—absolutely without competition or in price or character. The possessor of the volume just completed cannot duplicate the quantity of the paper and orgavings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost.

The labor of getting THE ALDINE ready on the press is so great that reprinting is out of the question. With the exception of a small number specially reserved for binding, the solition of 1971 is already exhausted and it is now a scarce as well as valuable book.

Now Foatures for 1872.—Art Department.

The enthusiastic support so readily accorded to their enterprise, wherever it has been introduced has convinced the publishers of THE ALDINE of the soundness of their theory that the American public would recognize and heartily support any sincere offort to clovate the tone and standing of illustrated puplications. That so many weekly wicked shoots exist and thrive is no ovidence that there is no market for anything better—indeed the success of THE ALDINE from the start is direct proof of the centrary. With a population so vast, and of such varied taste, a publisher can choose his patrons, and his paper is rather indicative of his own than of the taste of the country. As guarantee of the excellence of this department, the publishers would beg to amounte during the couning year, specimens from the following eminent American Artists.

Grany, Perrins,

W. T. Richards, Wm. Hart, W. HART,
WM. HART,
GEORGE SMILEY,
AUG. WILL,
AUG. WILL,
FRANK BRARD,
J. HOWS. GRANV. PERKINS, F. O. C. DARLEY, VICTOR NULLO. WM. H. WILLON, JAMES H. BEARD, R. E. PIGUET, PAUL DIXON,

The pictures are being reproduced without regard to expense by the very best engenvers in the country, and will bear the very severesteritical comparison with the best foreign work, it being the determination of the publishers that THE ALDINI: shall be a successful vindication of American taste in competition with any existing publication in the world

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

Where so much attention is paid to illustration and got up of the work, to much dependance on appearances may very naturally be feared. To anticipate such misgivings, is only necessary to state that the editorial management of THE ALDINE has been intrusted to Mr. Richard Henry Stoddart, who has received assurances of assistance from a host of the most popular writers and poets of the country.
