MODERN LANGUAGES AND ELOCUTION.

PROFESSOR SWIFT,

(Lately filling the chair of Elocution and Modern Languages, at the University of Notre Dame, Indi-

Having opened Winter Evening Classes, for in-struction in Elecution, and in the French, Italian and Spanish languages, hopes to receive a fair share of public support, assuring all his patrons that nothing shall be omitted on his part that will conduce to their rapid advancement.

Professor Swift's claims to public notice and encouragement are backed by the stronge.t recommendation from H. E. the late Cardinal Wiseman, the Count de Montalembert, and by a number of eminent gentlemen both in this City and the United States, whom it would be indelicate to name publicly, but whose written testimonials he possesses, and to whom he is kindly permitted to refer. Lucidity and rapidity in instruction, as well as purity of accent, are guaranteed, and form an integral part of the Professors system.

The Rev. Clergy, Barristers, and all public speakers, are most respectfully solicited to give Mr Swift a call.
