

The loyal toast honored, the portrait, which was by Mr. A. Dickson Patterson, and is a striking and natural likeness, was presented by Dr. Cleland, and accepted by Vice-Chancellor Moss, who reviewed the career of the guest, and paid a fervent tribute to his service as a Senator of the University during an important period.

DR. J. H. RICHARDSON.

After an address had been read by Prof. Ellis, the toast of "The Guest" was proposed by Mr. Cameron, who said that Dr. Richard-