to the follow-up to the Conference

I

In accordance with the provisions of the Final Act relating to the follow-up to the Conference on Security and Co-operation in Europe, a meeting of the representatives of the participating States — the Belgrade Meeting 1977 — was held from 4 October 1977 to 1978. The date, duration, agenda and other modalities of the Meeting were established in the Decisions of the Preparatory Meeting also held at Belgrade, from 15 June to 5 August 1977.

The representatives of Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Canada, Cyprus, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Finland, France, the German Democratic Republic, the Federal Republic of Germany, Greece, the Holy See, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Malta, Monaco, the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Romania, San Marino, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, the United Kingdom, the United States of America and Yugoslavia appointed by the Ministers of Foreign Affairs of these States took part in the Belgrade Meeting 1977.

During the opening session of the Meeting, the participants received a message from the President of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, Josip Broz Tito.

The participants were addressed, on behalf of the host country, by Mr. Milos Minic, Vice-President of the Federal Executive Council and Federal Secretary for Foreign Affairs of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia.

During the opening session of the Meeting, the participants were also addressed, on behalf of the Secretary-General of the United Nations, by Mr. Winspeare Guicciardi, Director-General of the Office of the United Nations at Geneva.
