

Article 12 - Records of Courts and Investigating Magistrates

The Requested State shall make available to the authorities of the Requesting State its records of courts or investigating magistrates - including judgments and decisions - on the same conditions and to the same extent as it does to its own authorities.

Article 13 - Judicial Records

The Requested State shall provide extracts from and information relating to judicial records requested from it, to the same extent that these may be available to its own authorities in like cases.

Article 14 - Transmittal of a Complaint for the Purposes of Prosecution or Confiscation

1. Each of the Contracting States may refer to the other a complaint for the purposes of prosecution or confiscation of proceeds of crime.
2. Any such complaint shall be accompanied by the relevant evidence gathered by the Requesting State.
3. The State to whom such a complaint is referred shall take appropriate action. In the appropriate case, it shall forward a copy of the decision made.
