

6. In furtherance of the effective operation of the Guidelines, the Canadian Government will, as necessary and appropriate, exchange relevant information with other Governments applying the same Guidelines.

7. The adherence of all states to these Guidelines in the interest of international peace and security would be welcome.