

that has characterized King's through the past may continue to influence succeeding generations of young people.

If you can do us the great favour of sending us some such message, it will be greatly appreciated by us as well as by our associates at Dalhousie, whose interests are linked up with ours in our present association.

Believe me, my dear Sir Arthur Currie,

Yours very faithfully,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "A.H. Moore".

AHM/M

President.