

467, JARVIS STREET,
TORONTO.

May 16 1920

copy

My dear Currie:

I congratulate both you and the Regent on your appointment. Since I am an academic person you may possibly place some value on my opinion that the Regent has done an extremely wise thing in appointing you. We in the University world have become aware of certain defects out which the Regent has not not know anyone more likely in time to correct them than you. You