

December
Fifth 1922.

Dr. Hermann M. Biggs,
Department of Health,
25 West 45th Street,
New York City.

Dear Dr. Biggs:-

When I returned to the University after a week's absence I found awaiting me your letter of November 24th.

I am very sorry that you have found it impossible to give one of the lectures in the Graduate Course in Industrial Medicine.

With all good wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Principal.