

- sition to his appointment by the Lord Keeper, 349; promoted to be Judge in King's Bench, 351; circumstances which caused his appointment as Judge, L. C., iv. 283; Chief Justice of Common Pleas, C. J., ii. 352; Chief Justice of King's Bench, 353; orders a deserter to be hanged, contrary to law, a visitor at Magdalen College, Oxford, 352; a member of High Commission Court, 354; presides on the trial of the Seven Bishops, 355, 363; L. C., iv. 283; his sarcastic remark to the Solicitor-General, C. J., ii. 364; his vacillation and pusillanimity in the Aylesbury Case, L. C., v. 130; his death and burial in Newgate, 131; C. J., ii. 365; his name exempted from the Indemnity Act, 366; his character, L. C., v. 131-4.
- WRIOTHESLEY—Thomas, parentage, L. C., ii. 123; negotiates a marriage between Henry VIII. and Duchess Dowager of Milan, 124; Chamberlain of Exchequer and a Peer, ib.; Chancellor, 127; C. J., i. 179; abjures the Pope, L. C., ii. 126; an incompetent Judge, 127; barbarous treatment of Anne Ascue, 129-30; Earl of Southampton, 141; angry expostulation against Lord Hertford being Protector, 140; plans the death of Catharine Par, 130-1; a Knight of the Garter, 133; prepares the will of Henry VIII., 135; charged with issuing illegal Commissions, 141; removed from office, 142; reinstated in the Council, 143; character and descendants, 145-6.
- WRIT—of Subpœna, L. C., i. 7; of Ne exeat regno, of Habeas Corpus and de Coronatore Eligendo, 13; of de Ventre inspiciendo, when granted, vi. 9; C. J., iv. 36.
- WROXETER—Roman road from to Church Stretton, L. C., i. 158.
- WULEY—Robert, father of Cardinal Wolsey, will of, L. C., i. 412.
- WULVIUS—Chancellor to Edward the Confessor, Royal Charter sealed by, L. C., i. 39.
- WYNDHAM—a lawyer of reputation, consents to act as a judge under Cromwell, C. J., ii. 101.
- WYNDHAM—Sir W., committed to the Tower, L. C., v. 336; defends Lord Macclesfield, 387; Excise scheme opposed by, vi. 45.