

| | Page |
|--|------|
| CANADIAN FORESTRY | 250 |
| Timber Reserves and Fire Rangers (251); Some Timber Reserves and Limits (252); Canadian Forestry Association (253). | |
| MARVELLOUS GROWTH OF CANADIAN TIMBER VALUES | 253 |
| Bought for $400 in 1861, Sold in 1902 for $665,000 (253); Ontario Timber Sales from 1868 to 1903 (254). | |
| RUBE SHOWS THE OLD CITIZEN SOME CANADIAN MISTAKES | 255 |
| Rube's Story of the Hogs (255); Establish Pork Packing Houses (256); Various Branches of the Business (257); Rube Talks on Cattle (257); "Build Abattoirs" (257); Rube Talks on Bacon (257); Proper Way to Populate Canada (258); "To Eat the Cake and Still Have it" (258); Not a "Pipe Dream" (260); Rapid Growth of Land Values in the Northwest (261); Canada's Generous Offer (261); Increase in Receipts (262); Free Homesteads (262); Advantages all on the Side of the Immigrant (262); Hardships of the Early Settlers (263). | |
| PART FOURTH, 267. | |
| THE HUMORS OF THE CAPITAL..... | |
| MAJOR GROWLEY DON'T LIKE US..... | 267 |
| "The only Good Englishman" says the Major "is a Dead One" (269); The Major Would Freeze us to Death (269). | |
| OTTAWANETTES | 270 |
| Some Capital Stories (270); Always to the Front (270); "The Half of Yees Come up" (271); "Ahr ye down There?" (271); The Great and only Mr. Z and his Historical Speech (271); "The Footprints of the Hand of Providence" (272); The Caves of Nepean Point or the Captain of the Black Pirate Ship (272); "The Scarlet Robes of the Golden Sunset" (272); Spring Chickens (273); "Ze Old Vun vaz ze Yung Vun" (273); Edward got the Place (273); He follows the Medical Profession (273); "Off to a Better World" (274); "A Full Hand" (274); "We il Toss for the Next" (274); "Well den oo dit de dust pan" (275); Rube's Ottawa Sweetheart, aged nine (275). | |
| RUBE AND THE COLONEL RUN TO A FIRE..... | 275 |
| Police so Nice and Kind up here (276); Fire Protection (277); Ottawans Matter of Fact People (277); Bytown Fire Brigades (278). | |
| THE COLONEL, THE TOMATOES AND THE DOG..... | 279 |
| Which shows that, to a man up a tree, "Honesty is the best policy," and may bring him an earlier dinner. | |
| RUBE AND THE COLONEL GO TO THE FAIR—The Central Canada Exhibition (281); No Jays at the Fair (282); "Made in Canada" (282); Rube Buys a Microscope (283); Shurly and Detrich's Saws (283); "Karn is King" | |