ONLY ONE OTHER LEFT

Pupils Will Be Taught in Basements No More in Toronto.

The remaining basement class is in Withrow Avenue school, and it will be closed on the completion of the addition to the building.

The class taught in the Howard School basement was discontinued yesterday because the new storey has been completed and will be opened on Monday morning.

Two basement classes in Franklin School were discontinued two weeks ago on the completion of a new wing. Hundreds of public school classes are being held in portable buildings to playgrounds in all parts of the city, but no more basement classes are to be opened.

MRS. HEATH TO SPEAK ONLY IN TORONTO

The address to be given in Margaret Eaton Hall on Monday evening by Mrs. Julia Heath, president of the Housewives' League of the United States, will be her last during her stay in Canada. It was the intention of the National Council of Women, under whose auspices Mrs. Heath comes to our city, that she should lecture in Hamilton, Sarnia, Brantford, St. Catharines and other points, but all with the exception of Toronto have been cancelled owing to Mrs. Heath being somewhat indisposed. While in Toronto Mrs. Heath will be the guest of Mrs. Raney, 117 Madison avenue.

CHESTERTON A BUTTRESS, NOT PILLAR, SAYS BURKE

"A Second Literary Spring" was the subject of a scholarly and highly interesting lecture given yesterday afternoon in the auditorium of St. Joseph's College by Rev. T. F. Burke, rector of Newman Hall. In the time of Cardinal Newman Roman Catholic writers had dwindled to such an extent that the great master of English was under the impression that Catholic literature would never again rise to its former growth and luxuriance. The lecturer, however, quoted a lengthy list of names which stand for those in the front ranks of today's writers, who are either Catholics or engaged in Catholic literature. The second spring has at least dawned.

In the course of his address copious quotations were made from Francis Thompson, Louise Imogene Guiney, Alice Meynell, Father Tabb, Lionel Johnson and Chesterton, who, the lecturer said, though not a pillar, might be called a buttress of the Roman Catholic Church.

Father Burke was introduced by Mrs. Ambrose Small, president of the alumnae, and a vote of thanks tendered by Mrs. Day, seconded by Miss Hart. Musical numbers were contributed by Mrs. Wilson and Miss Kathleen O'Connor.

VICTORIANS VISITED SEVENTEEN THOUSAND

Sir John Gibson presided at the annual meeting of the Victorian Order of Nurses yesterday afternoon, and the large number present showed the interest taken in the work upon which the organization is engaged. The nurses in uniform were an attractive portion of the audience.

The financial statement showed that $6068 had been collected by payments from subscribers $2195, general subscription collected by Mrs. New $1500, city grant $400. There is a deficit of $1119.

During the year 17,000 visits had been paid by the nurses, and one-twelfth of all the obstetrical cases in the city were attended by the Victorian nurses.

Short addresses were made by Mr. Dickie, Rev. Crawford Brown, Dr. Harley Smith and Mr. Wilkie, and among others present were Chief Justice Osler, Rev. Father Minahan, Dr. Grasset and Mr. Diamond.

SAID PRESIDENT TRICKED WOMEN

Answer Given to Suffrage Deputation Roused Ire of California Congressman

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Representative Knowland, Republican of California, said today that the success of the suffrage movement in California and other western states justified action by congress. He attacked the Democratic party for refusing recognition to the women. He said he understood the majority leaders had "condemned" to grant a hearing before the Democratic party. He added "as the party has gone on record in causing by a two-thirds vote, the hearing will, I fear, be without result."

When the president told the women, "I am not at liberty until I speak for somebody besides myself, to urge legislation," Mr. Knowland said they made one more plea for executive favor, only to be told that the president was not a party to the cause, because it was not mentioned in the Democratic platform. "Listen to it, my Democratic friends," shouted the speaker, "and you may be surprised to learn that a platform which all has its uses, proving particularly valuable and convenient in extricating one from embarrassing predicaments."

PRIVY COUNCIL APPEALS MUST NOT BE ENDED

LONDON, Feb. 19.—In an editorial on the privy council, The Manchester Guardian remarks today: "It is not likely that the extremist Canadian view, which would have appeal entirely abolished, will gain much support even in Canada. Sober opinion throughout the empire regards the privy council as indispensable in inter-provincial and similar disputes. Appointments to the committee of eminent judges from the Dominion has, however, given general satisfaction. If with this reform there can be introduced the means to ensure that appeal shall operate as a citizen as in that of a trust or province, the criticism of the dominions would doubtless be silenced."

Receipts for Dainty Salads

SALADS are the most appetizing additions one can make to the daily bill of fare. A rich dressing makes their food value high and the succulent vegetables that usually compose them furnish the minerals our systems need.

It is only a matter of practice for anyone to produce a smooth dressing, but for those who have no time for the blending, mixing and beating of eggs and oils there are a host of ready-made dressings that more than equal the average home-made article.

The following salad mixtures will afford satisfaction when blended with a fine mayonnaise or a French dressing. They are pungent, rich and should tempt the most jaded appetite.

Molded Tomatoes: Chop celery fine and season it with salt and pepper. Scoop out the inside of small tomatoes, remove the seed and chop this and mix with the celery and salad dressing. Fill the tomatoes with this and place on a heap of shredded lettuce with a spoonful of dressing.

Chorus Girl Salad: Dice enough lobster meat to fill a pint measure and chop a few mushrooms and cut some water cress fine. Mix this together and season very delicately with celery salt and white pepper. Sprinkle about ten drops of vinegar over all and cover for twenty minutes. When ready to serve place a head lettuce leaf on an individual salad platter and on it put a spoonful of the salad. Masque this with rich salad dressing. Garnish each plate with olives stuffed with capers or pimientos and curled celery and lobster claws.

Popular Salad—This is of apple and celery. Chop celery and add chopped nut meats and as much diced apple as will equal the amount of the above. Mix with dressing and serve in apple shells or as you like.

Beets and Potatoes—Dice these cold boiled vegetables or cut them in strips with a vegetable cutter. Put the potatoes into the dressing at once and the beets into spiced vinegar; when serving dish separately.

Cabbage Salad for Men—Dice some bacon and fry it until brown and crisp, add a cup of vinegar and salt and pepper to season. Bring to boil and pour at once over shredded cabbage. Have this very cold when serving it.

Ladies' Cabbage Salad—Chop the cabbage very fine and salt it. Whip a half-pint of cream and four tablespoons of powdered sugar to it. Sprinkle a tablespoon of vinegar over the cabbage, then pour on this sweetened cream. Mix, chill and serve.

Cauliflower Salad—Flowerets of cold cauliflower dipped in dressing and placed in centre of salad dish and garnished with diced or fancy cut meats.

French Cucumber Salad—Slice the cucumbers and soak them in salted ice water for several hours, slice tender onions also and mix them together. Serve on cress with mayonnaise.

New Orleans Salad—Boil tender okra until well done, drain and chill. Dip small sweet peppers in boiling fat, cut out the skin into matchlike strips. Mix pepper and okra together, cover with rich dressing and serve with fowl or fish. The peppers may be sliced and soaked in salt water and then fried in butter if it is not convenient to fry them as directed.

BETTER BABIES

"Better Babies" is the most popular movement of the day. It is sweeping across the United States like wildfire and it has reached Toronto.

For the very best, hoping that by the time we came to the end, our poor pen would have felt itself fit to undertake a full and complete description of this healthy blossom. But no pen of ours will be so foolish as to attempt such a description. Besides, "Breathes there a soul with eyes so blind" who has never gazed upon this incomparable loveliness? For how true is this little verse, from somewhere: "From the reeds of the pond, the lily has risen in raiment white, A spirit of air and water. A form of incarnate delight. Yet, except for the noted stem, That steadies her diadem, Except for the earth she is nourished by. Could the soul of the lily have climbed to the sky?"

The name Nymphaea indicates that these exquisite blossoms were dedicated to the water nymphs, the pretty superstition concerning which civilized (?) nations now no longer hold. Nymphaea is the ordinary sweet-scented white water-lily of the north, is found native in ponds and rivers with slow moving currents, the whole world over.

The blossoms from early June until September, according to the location, are rather slow-opening, but when the flower does come to the opening, the change is very rapid.

The full blossom lasts about three days, then the seeds commence to form almost immediately.

Each blossom produces countless seeds, in a many-celled seed vessel, in which each separate seed ripens under water. Ripened, the seed vessel opens up at the top, and soon the seeds fall into the water, where in time, a long time, germination takes place, and the plant is reproduced.

In many large water gardens of the world are assembled specimens from the uttermost hidden recesses of the world.

The great Victoria regia, from the Amazon, deigns to grow with the tiny N. odorata minor, a wee dwarf often found here. The various specimens are white-blossomed, yellow, pink, rose, blue, scarlet and crimson. But can you imagine a scarlet or blue water-lily?

To make sure the new roots are carried deep enough, tie a weight to your specimen before putting it in the water.

I would use no other medicine for my little ones." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PEOPLE REMIND HER OF CANDLES

Dr. Jenny Gray Spoke on Adolescence to Central Union Y. W. C. A.

"The people sitting in street cars nowadays remind me of many tall candles." This statement puts Dr. Jenny Gray's address to the Central Union Y.W.C.A. into a nutshell. Adolescence was the subject Dr. Gray chose for her talk to the central women on Friday, and it was with marked attention and interest that they followed her thru an inspiring paper. Adolescence was pre-eminent by a time of change—it was in a lifetime between the ages of twelve and eighteen years that the seeds of good or evil were planted. The plastic individual must be guarded by the matured individual and must be guarded by the plastic individual. Youth must be guarded against self-companions, and strange to say, diet influences strongly the moral condition of the adolescent youth.

"At the age of fourteen years truancy asserts itself," said Dr. Gray. A vote of thanks was tendered Dr. Gray by Mrs. Helbourne, the president. The members were much pleased with the announcement of another doctor's talk in March.

The delegates elected to attend the alliance next week were Mrs. Helbourne, Mrs. Rigley and Mrs. Thompson.

CITIES AND TOWNSHIPS ANSWER WOMEN'S APPEAL

The following letter has been received from Constance E. Hamilton, secretary-treasurer of the Municipal Franchise Referendum Committee:

It will be remembered that shortly after the January elections the referendum committee sent out letters to the numerous mayors and Reeves of Ontario, calling upon them to pass resolutions in their councils in favor of granting the municipal franchise to married women.

Favorable answers have been received from a large number of places, the names of which are appended. These councils have also sent requests to their representative in the provincial legislature asking him to vote in favor of any legislation which seeks to give the municipal franchise to married women.

Following is a list of those places sending favorable replies to date: Cities of St. Catharines, Port William and Port Arthur; townships of Etobicoke, Boscawen, Arthur, Tisdale, Medford, Artimies, Griffith and Matawatchan, Albemarle, Harley, Charlottetown, Bruce, East Zorra, Pittsburg, Blenheim, Strathroy, Ayr, Watford, Kincardine, Wellston, Matheson, Keewatin, Gosfield, Biddulph, Paisley, St. Mary's, Onondaga, Galt, Chesley, Mitchell, Midland, Haliburton, Paris, Renfrew, Salice and Englehart.

WIFE'S HAT BLEW AWAY ON HER HONEYMOON TRIP

Alleging that part of her trousseau, to wit, her bird of paradise hat, valued at $18.50, was blown from her head as she passed from one car to another, Mrs. Martha Brown sued the Grand Trunk Railway before Judge Morson yesterday for $80 damages.

Mrs. Brown and her husband were on their honeymoon trip last summer and boarded the train at Lindsay en route to Minden. As the train passed Stouffville the lady hats came loose and went into the next car, and when she stepped out across the platform the wind swept away her millinery and rolled it over and over in the roadbed. Tearfully she sought the conductor, Conductor McCarthy, who wired back to Stouffville, and the hat in a very much bedraggled condition came forward on the next train.

Judge Morson adjourned the case for a week after hearing the evidence.
