

of the said Ships in their Pursuit of the said Discovery.— And this Deponent further saith, that in the Course of the Prosecution of the said Discovery, this Deponent, in the Latitude 62° and half, and 65° North, saw many black Whales, and of the Whalebone kind, but none of the said black Whales in the Southern Part of Hudson's Bay.— And the further Advance was made to the Northward, the larger Quantity of Black Whales were seen.

F I N I S.

