

SECTION.

- 66.—Authority to apprehend idle and disorderly persons.
 67.—Bail to be taken in certain cases.
 68.—Officer or constable punishable for neglect of duty.
 69.—Persons assaulting an officer or constable, how punished.
 70.—Mayor's Court established.
 71.—Powers of the Mayor's Court further defined.
 72.—How certain fines, &c, are to be recovered and applied.
 73.—Tenant liable to pay assessment, with right to deduct amount paid from rent.
 74.—Privilege granted to secure payment of two years' assessments.
 75.—Certain Laws to continue repealed, and certain Laws repealed.
 76.—Powers of the Trinity House, Harbour, and Lachine Canal Commissioners not to be affected by this Act.
 77.—Reservation of Her Majesty's rights.
 78.—Certain words interpreted.
 79.—The Surveyor of the City, within two years, to draw a plan of the City for public inspection.
 80.—Lands within the City limits, not yet laid out in building lots to be included in City Surveyor's plan with the necessary streets and squares thereon marked out, and, after notice given to the parties interested, such plan to be homologated and followed up.
 81.—Cruelty to animals may be punished by fine or imprisonment or by both.
 82.—The Corporation may acquire a certain quantity of land over and above what is absolutely necessary for any street, square or market place &c.
 83.—Public Act.