THE WOMEN WATCH J. DEMPSEY WORK

Willard Expected to Arrive at Toledo Today or on Sunday.

Toledo, O., May 30.—There will be four preliminaries to the world's heavyweight championship contest between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey here July 4, A. D. Q. Thatcher, matchmaker of the Toledo Athletic Club, announced tonight. The huge arena, with a seating capacity of fifty thousand persons, will be opened to the public at nine o'clock in the morning, and the first preliminary contest will be started at 11 o'clock. There will be a match every hour thereafter until Willard and his youthful challenger climb into the ring, at three o'clock.
Dempsey, a capacity Memorial Day crowd in his sun-baked arena on the shores of Maumee Bay this afternoon. There were more women visitors in camp than men. The challenger tugged at the weights, punched the bag unrelentingly, and in the heat of mid-afternoon, instead of the cool of the morning, so that he will become accustomed to conditions likely to prevail on the afternoon of July 4.
Dempsey's work with the gloves was increased in an effort to sharpen his hand. He covered six miles this morning, and after a rest went swimming. Ray O. Archer, business manager for Willard, was happy today after receiving word from Walter Monahan that he had obtained a furlough from the army and would join Willard's staff of sparring partners. Monahan boxed with Willard for his championship match with Jack Johnson in Havana, and later in the circus tour, and the champion considers him the best sparring mate available.
Archer had received no word from Willard, and did not know whether big Jess would stop off for a day's visit with his wife and five children at Lawrence, Kansas, or continue his journey direct to Toledo. Willard is due to arrive tomorrow, but if he stops off at Lawrence, his arrival will be delayed until Sunday.
