Windsor, Jan. 25.—The Windsor bonspiel, the annual event of the Windsor Club for Wasker International Cup, opened this morning most auspiciously. There are eight clubs contesting, Glencoe, Thamesville, Chatham, Sarnáa, Ridgetown, Grand Rapids, Detroit and Windsor. The ice is in the best possible condition, and the Windsor curiers, after two days of disheartedness, are consequently in the best of spirits, the bouspiel being now an assured success. The first draw was played this morning and afternoon. The second draw took place this evening. The final match will be played to-morrow morning, commencing at 9.

Just $3.50

We want you to compare the Keith es with the best $5 shoes you have

A Canadian manufacturer who saw them candidly admits, "We would lose a dollar a pair on shoes like those, if we sold them at $3.50."

They are the products of American genius and enterprise and the price is made possibly only by the enormous daily output of 6000 pairs from the largest men's shoe factory in the world. Hockey Clearing the fine "Champion" Hockey Boots—usu-Boots, ally sold at $2.75 and $3 a pair—for $2. You'll be sure to find your right size in these shoes.

TRIAL RACES CAUSING TROUBLE.

a Challenger and Roast Chicago. a Challenger and Roast Chicago.

Toledo, Jan. 25.—The Toledo Yachting Association has fallen out with the Chicago Yachting Club.

The Toledo Association intended to build a couple of challenge yachts for the international contest, but will not do so now. The grievance is that the Chicago Club has acted unsportsmanlike in that it stipulates that all trial races shall be run in Chicago waters, entailing great expense to Lake Eric boats, and second, that it gives no guarantee that the winner in the trial races will be selected to go after the cup.
