ed to Southern Vice-Story of the Murders Cannot roys, Who Are Still in Communication With the Chinese Capital, and There May Yet be Hope.

Emperor Forced to Suicide by Prince Tuan-Took Poison and Died in an Hour-Dowager Empress Said to be Still Alive—British Will Hold Authorities at Pekin Personally Responsible for the Lives of Europeans.

London, July 6.-(2.30 a.m.)-The story that all foreigners in Pekin were murdered on June 30 or July 1 appears to be cirulating simultaneously at Che Foo, Shanghai and Tien Tsin, Yet, as it is not confirmstill in communication with Pekin, there is a basis for the hope that it is untrue. Rushed the Batish Legation, Correspondents of The Express at Shanghal gather details from Chinese sources, which, pleced together, relate that when the foreigners' ammunition was exhausted the Boxers and Imperial troops rushed the British legation and poured into the courtyard with fanatical fury. The foreign troops were so hopelessly outnumbered that their fate was certain. The moment Suspicions of Untold Horrors.

The demeanor of the better class of Chinese is one of pity, rather than of triumph. Even the rabble in the native quarter are filent."

The Emperor is Dead.

Britain's request that she endeavor to include Russia to agree to the proposal duce Russia to agree to the proposal duce Russia to agree to the proposal duce Russia to agree to the proposal whereby Japan should undertake the work of pacification in China, asserting that the good relations between Germany and Russia might be impaired, inasmuch as itussia and Japan have opposing interests in North China. Germany, therefore, will continue in an attitude of neutrality in the concert of the other powers.

No News of Massacres.

The Emperor is Dead. Two Manchus, who arrived at Shanghai, certify to the truth of the statement that Pekin. Prince Tuan visited the Palace and offered the Emperor and Dowager-Empress the al-
