| Beans, per bu                  | 75c to 90c |  |

Wheat deliveries continue light, and prices show no signs of any improvement; the outside markets decline almost every day, and this market follows at a distance, the light receipts probably being the only feature that prevents it responding more rapidly. New wheat has become a common sight; the average sample is of fairly good quality. Prices close about steady for old and a few lower for new.

The demand for oats was good, and some days much greater than the supply. On these occasions prices were forced up considerably. At today's session very few offered, and the demand was light, the only buyers being commission men, who wanted them for private parties. Sales ranged from 33c to 38c for the week, 38c being the price today; only one load offered. No business was done in any other kind of grain.

Hay sales were made at $6 50 to $8, the latter price being realized at Tuesday's session; receipts were only moderate, and the demand good.

Live hogs displayed a stronger tone all week; before the close $4 75 was paid for choice.

Dressed hogs were steady, and wool unchanged.
