Smith of Kent Bridge was the scene of a very interesting wedding last Monday afternoon, when their eldest daughter, Minerva, became the bride of Stafford Posha of Kent Bridge. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Percy Banes, Methodist minister of Louisville, at 4 o'clock in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. After the ceremony the young couple left for New York from where they will sail later for Bermuda. The bride traveled in her wedding gown of brown silk, with black hat and seal coat trimmed with opossum.

The groom is a nephew of Dr. F. L. Burdon of Waterloo streyt, London.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zankey Arkona, on December 8, when their daughter, Sadie was united in marriage to Mr. Walter Maurice Woolvett, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. C. L. L. Couzens of Arkona. Promptly at 12 noon, to the strains of the Wedding March played by the bride's sister, Mrs. Beaver Faulds, the bride entered the parlor, leaning on the arm of her father, and took her place under an arch of evergreens. The bride was gowned in georgette and taffeta, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair ferns. The bridesmaid was her cousin, Miss Mary Bell of Thedford, and the groom was supported by his brother Mr. Albert Woolvett. Mr. Wm. Woolvett, brother of the groom, sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

After the ceremony over 35 guests sat parish. The annual reports showed a The gift gratifying increase in interest and work in all departments. Miss Smith, the diocesan treasurer

A Schoolboy's Request.

Dear Mail-Box Sisters—This is my first letter to the Mail-Box, although mother has written before. Could you please send me a few comic recitations? I am 14 years old. Mother got me one last year from you, and it was so good everyone enjoyed it. Also has anyone a good song with the music, suitable for a boy and two girls or even a boy alone? Please try and help me out, as it's getting near Christmas. Thank you just now, and I will inclose a stamp for mailing.

Ans.—If you will send me your name and address, repeating request, I will see if I can't help you out of your difficulty

Congratulations!

Where is Witch Hazel?

Dear Cynthia Grey,—Some time ago in the autumn there was a lovely letter published in the Mail-Box and sent in by Witch Hazel. I wonder where she has gone and if she won't write us again about the beauties of out of doors, because I am sure she is a wanderer in the woods at all seasons of the year. I kept her letter for my scrapbook and have waited eagerly for her to write again.

MOIL MAKE-BELIEVE.

Ans.—I, too, remember the letter you write about from Witch Hazel. We invited her warmly to come again very soon, and I hope she will see your letter, Molly, and hasten in to the Mail-Box with a breath of nature, which she loves so well.

A Chocolate Cake.

Dear Miss Grey,—It is a long time since I have written to you, and the last time I wrote I forgot to inclose the chocolate cake recipe I promised to, but hope not to forgot it this time. You will think I am nothing but a bothersome questioner, but please excuse me as I am helping to get up a Christmas concert and would like to secure some nice recitations that happen to be in the Mail-Box. I am sending stamped, self-addressed envelope for you to put them in. If you do me this favor I will be very grateful.

I am in the fourth class at school, and I hope to write my entrance next June. 1. I am 12 years old. Do you think I am far enough advanced? 2. I have dark brown hair and eyes and have a medium complexion, what do you think are my colors?
