Europe's possibilities in the line of commercial puglism (term copyrighted, 1907-8, by Tommy Burns, champion), have never been shown up so alluringly as our old friend Burns is doing at the present time, says Bassatt O'Hara. John L Sullivan reaped a harvest of honors and some money in England and Ireland some years ago, and later John O'Brien of Philadelphia, made several times the passage money by a tour of the English towns, but all these efforts fade into insignificance when compared with what Temmy Burns has done.

In England Tommy fought Moir and Palmer, then went to Ireland and whipped Roche, then to Paris for victories over Jewey Smith and Bill Squires, and is now sailing for Australia, where a trind bout with Squires is to net him the been proportion of a $14.000 purse. No one trird bout with Squires is to net him the big proportion of a $14,000 purse. No one in America seems to take that last Squires bout at all seriously. The cable dispatches tell us that Squires had Burns groggy in the fourth round, and that up to the end of the fifth session it looked as the Tommy would get the steep blow. The fact that the Canadian champion came back to life in the sixth round and that in the eighth he put Squires down for the count makes the reports of his previous grogginess lcok improbable. Still, it is possible that Squires did have the upper hand in the early sessions, and that Tommy's escape from defeat was really by a very narrow margin.

Burns is not expected to return to this continent until winter, at the earliest. Whom will he take on first when he does mirive? Stanley Ketchell, if he keeps on winning, would seem to be the logical opponent. Jack Johnson may finally get a match, but it is the writer's belief that Jack will have to wait until all the eligible white boys are disposed of. Despite all the press talk to the contrary, there is really no great public demand for a meeting between the champion and the black than. As previously pointed out in this column, Johnson has falled to impress the public as a wonderful man in the chances he has had against second, third and fourth raters. He has yet to prove that he is all wool and a yard wide.

The official opening of the grounds of the Oaklands Lawn Bowling Club took place on Saturday afternoon last, when His Worship Mayor Ollver bowled the first bowl. A number of visitors, including a goodly sprinkling of the fair sex, were present together with three rinks of the Queen City Club, all of whom were guests of the president. An interesting match was played between three rinks each of the Oaklands and Queen City Clubs, resulting in favor of the Oaklands by the following score:

One of the New York yellows printed the story again yesterday that Tom Longboat's entry would be refused in the Olympic Marathon, and the local evenings reproduced the yarn, that must be taken with a grain of sait, especially as Jim Sullivan's name is connected therewith.

The Canadian Olympic team arrived in England Sunday night, and according to the cablegram the men are all in fine health and spirits.

The arraignment of persons arrested carged with making bets scheduled for to-day at Coney Island also was postponed, thus deferring for several days the expected judicial interpretation of the new anti-betting laws.

Justice Bischoff did not hear the application for the adjournment in open court, but the counsel for the Jockey Club and the prisoner were told to go to the private chambers of the justice and reporters were excluded.
