VARSITY SWIMMING CLUB

Many Competitors in Trials of Speed, Diving and Fancy Swimming.

That things look promising for the Varsity Swimming Club for the coming season was shown in trials held at Varsity yesterday afternoon. There was a big crowd of competitors present, and the performances were first-class. Mr. Corran, the instructor, was well pleased with the results, and thinks that things look very promising. Clark and Foote showed the most speed in the 100-foot race for freshmen, by making the distance in 15 seconds. Whitesides proved to be the best water polo man, and his performance showed him to be a great swimmer. Harvey Douglas gave an interesting exhibition of diving. He made eight different dives from a low springboard, and the applause showed that the spectators were well pleased. The team race, which consisted of seven a side, showed the fastest men. The McKenzie, Gibson, Harvey, Foote, Clark and Moscovy. In the 50-yard team race, between the freshmen and the old boys, the old boys proved the fastest. Charlie Johnson, the president of the Swimming Club, gave a fine exhibition of fancy swimming that made a hit with the spectators. Mr. Corran, the instructor, gave a
