Talk About Status of Women

Workers Hearsay, Says Dr.

A. H. Abbott.

Female labor in munition plants in Toronto will be the chief subjects of discussion at the next meeting of the provincial conservation committee which will be held in the parliament buildings on Wednesday morning of next week at 10.30 a.m. A lengthy report following investigation of Toronto munition plants by the secretary will be presented.

While Dr. A. H. Abbott, secretary of the committee, would not state what was contained in the report, it is understood that it indicates that many of the runors, current regarding inde-the rumors current regarding inade-quate wages for women workers and the supposed unwillingness of employers to hire women, have little founda-tion in fact. What action, if any, the committee will decide to take on the lasis of the facts as revealed in the report remains for the committee to decide.

SENSATION PROMISED

IN ENGLAND'S COURTS

The courts are likely to be troubled shortly with a sensational breach of promise action. The plaintiff is a very attractive revue actress, and the defendant the youngest son of a peer of some standing in the political world. The defendant has a very tender regard for the lady, and would be willing to settle the matter out of court, if papa would pay up. The noble lord, however, means to take all risks, and for the moment legal preliminaries are proceeding.
