

Minister, should from failing strength, find it necessary to transfer his services to another portion of the missionary field. The Committee, however, are thankful to remark, that the probability exists, that his place will be supplied, as there is a grant of £100 stg. from the Colonial and Continental Church Society, to the Mission of New London.

The Mission of Crapaud is still vacant. Through the persevering efforts of His Lordship the Bishop of Nova Scotia, two grants of £50 stg. each, have been made by the Society for the propagation of the Gospel; and while the Committee would tender their thanks to the Bishop for his exertions on behalf of the Church in this Island, they are anxious that these grants should immediately be made available, and therefore would urge on those who are more particularly to be benefited by them, to respond with promptitude and liberality to the generous aid granted by the Society at home.

The receipts from the several parishes and Missionary stations, amount to £121,—as will appear from the Treasurer's Report, which will be submitted.

The Committee would now present abstracts from the Reports made by the several Clergy throughout the Island

CHARLOTTETOWN.

The Ministers of St. Paul's, Charlottetown, report that during the past year there have been 62 Baptisms, 21 Marriages and 27 Burials, upwards of 300 religious services have been held and 750 Pastoral visits paid. The attendance on the various means of grace has been generally good, and some of the prayer meetings have been largely attended. The Library contains some 1260 volumes, being an addition of 80 since last year. The morning and afternoon Sunday School numbering about 240 children has been regularly held, and upward of 170 scholars have received rewards for their diligence and good conduct. The pulpit and reading desk have been altered for the better, the expenses of which have been generously contributed by some unknown individual. The steeple has
