

Serious infringement of discipline, habitual profanity of language, and the introduction of pernicious works are causes of expulsion.

All books, papers, or pamphlets received by students are previously submitted to the approval of the Director, who also inspects the letters.

Each student should be provided with the Seminary uniform, consisting of a black coat, with pants and cap of the same color. It is to be worn on Sundays, festivals and public occasions.

Monthly fees.

Tuition	$3 00
Board	8.00
Washing.....	1.00
Bedding	1.00
	<hr/>
	$13.00

On the first month, an extra of $1.00 is charged for a table set.

All charges are payable at least each month, strictly in advance. It is advisable to make the payments by Express, Post Office orders, or Bank checks; a surplus of $0 25 should be added to checks to defray the cost of their collection.

Students have the use of the Library at a moderate monthly fee.

Drawing and vocal Music entail no extra charge.

The college Band receives excellent training, and is provided with a large and choice variety of instruments. The students who wish to enter it have previously to make a special arrangement with its Superintendent.

When ill, the students are confided to the care of the "Sisters of Charity" who have the management of the Infirmary; a moderate daily fee is charged extra.

Any damage caused by a student to the furniture, instruments or books of the Seminary is charged to his account.