

SAINT JOHN MEN GIVE VIEWS AS TO PARTY CHIEF

Comment on Retirement of Hon. A. Meighen as Conservative Leader

Touchoing the matter of the Conservative leadership the Toronto Star says:
"The past few days have seen a big boom in the stock of Premier Rhodes of Nova Scotia as probable successor of Mr. Meighen. The east will be of the Federal Conservatives. He is at present in Ottawa and his choice is said to be likely. The east will not upon Rhodes, it is said, and he may not be unacceptable to the Tories of the rest of the country."
"If Mr. Meighen has definitely decided to withdraw from the House," said E. C. Phelan, "it is a pity that Nova Scotia's case on maritime rights before the royal commission, 'I can think of no man in Canada who is better qualified for leadership of the Conservative party than Premier Rhodes. His long experience in the Canadian parliament, when for years he was Speaker of the House, fit him for that important position which he filled with marked ability. His experience in Federal matters gives Mr.
Rhodes qualifications along these lines which make him an admirable leader.
There is no man in Canada who surpassed Mr. Rhodes as a debater or orator."
Saint John politicians comment on Mr. Meighen's retirement is quoted by the Star as follows:
Col. Murray MacLaren, M.P.-elect (Saint John-Albert): "Right Hon.
Arthur Meighen's familiarity with details of legislative enactments is remarkable. His absence from House of Commons as suggested by press would occasion great loss to country." Thomas Bell, M.P.-elect (Saint John-Albert): "That Mr. Meighen is to retire from public life, if true, would mean an incalculable loss to his party and to the House of Commons." Miss E. Agar, M.L.A. (Saint John):
"Former Premier Meighen commanded the respect and confidence of the Conservative party and his energy and industry were very great. Sir Thomas White would be ideal leader, whilst Drayton, Rogers or Sir Douglas Haas would meet all requirements should post become vacant."

LIFE OF DROWNING MAN SAVED BY DOG

German Police Animal Pushes John Coda to Side of Barge

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Kaiser Wilhelm, a German police dog owned by Angelo Flocchi, of Macdonald street, saved the life of John Coda when Coda fell overboard from a brick barge moored in the Hudson river at Charles street. The dog jumped into the water when Coda began shouting for help, and, with forepaws and muzzle pushed the struggling man back to the barge.
By that time two men had come up and both dog and man were dragged ashore.
Coda cannot swim and began to shout lustily for help. The dog barked and when no one came behind Coda was struggling to keep afloat when he felt the body of the dog against him. He tried to seize the animal by the neck, but Kaiser Wilhelm snarled and nipped at him and Coda desisted.
The dog then swam behind Coda, and, keeping himself afloat by vigorous thrashing of his hind feet, put his forepaws against Coda's shoulders and began to push. He pushed also with his muzzle, and his strength, with the feeble thrashes that was making himself afloat, and the animal was kept graciously shoved the man closer to the barge.
From time to time the dog took his mouth away from Coda's shoulder long enough to bark frantically, and he was finally heard by two men.
An ambulance surgeon took Coda to Bellevue Hospital, and a policeman took the dog to the Charles Street police station, where the animal was kept until Flocchi claimed him. Flocchi has had the dog a year. Three months ago the animal frightened away a burglar who was trying to rob Flocchi.

AN INTERNAL BATH DAILY RECOMMENDED

A prominent physician made the remark recently that if people were half as particular in regard to internal cleanliness as they are about external appearance three quarters of our ordinary ailments would be eliminated. This medical man said people did not stop to think of the importance of keeping the system just as clean as one is careful to keep hands, face and body. The result is that the internal tract becomes clogged and waste material which should leave the body daily stays there for an indefinite period doing a harm few people realize. So many ills are traceable to these clogging poisons! An internal bath sounds novel, but it is much easier to take than any other kind! A spoonful of Eucalypti before breakfast (or after any meal), dissolved in a glass of spiced water acts as a gentle cleansing of the bowels—provides a soothing internal bath that rids the body of dangerous toxic poisons and gives one that feeling of freshness, vigor and well-being. A further advantage of the internal bath lies in the fact that a healthy body ensures an alert and active mind which makes for greater efficiency and happiness in one's daily work.

Verdict Is Given In Bathurst Fatality

BATHURST, Sept. 29.—At the inquest, held here today, into the death of Frank Young, of South Bathurst, and J. Harry Fraser, of Moncton, who lost their lives when a way freight crashed into an auto driven by the former, derailling the train on which the latter was forward brakeman, several witnesses were heard. The verdict of the jury was that the two unfortunate men had met their death by accident and recommended that no carr be pushed in front of an engine in future, and that a subway be placed at the crossing where the accident took place. Dr. R. G. Duncan, coroner, presided, and J. L. Ryan attended as clerk of the peace.

AUTO AND CAR CRASH

A Canadian National Express auto truck, while trying to make the turn on the western side of Prince William street, between the grass plot and curb, at Reed's Point about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, collided with a street car, with the result that the latter received some broken windows and the passengers were badly frightened. At this section the roadway is very narrow and when a collision was seen to be unavoidable the driver of the truck gave his steering wheel a turn, placing one of the wheels on the plot, but not in time to avoid the accident. It is reported the truck escaped damage.

AMOUNT TOO SMALL FOR DRY LAW WORK

New York Administrator Says $1,226,000 Does Not Permit Extension

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The Federal Government has granted to Major Chester P. Mills, Prohibition Administrator for this district, $1,226,000 for the enforcement of prohibition throughout the fiscal year which began July 1 last. The amount, which is about $200,000 more than was spent during the last fiscal year, is insufficient, Major Mills said upon his return Washington, where he attended a conference of all Prohibition Administrators with Brig. Gen. Lincoln C.
Andrews, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, in charge of prohibition enforcement.

Major Mills said that the amount of his allotment would not permit the employment of any more enforcement agents or other employees. He declared that he would continue, as heretofore, to go after sources of supply, continuing a "squad" of only twenty-five agents on such matters as speakeasies, night clubs and resorts of that
