

STILL USING THE PRUNING KNIFE

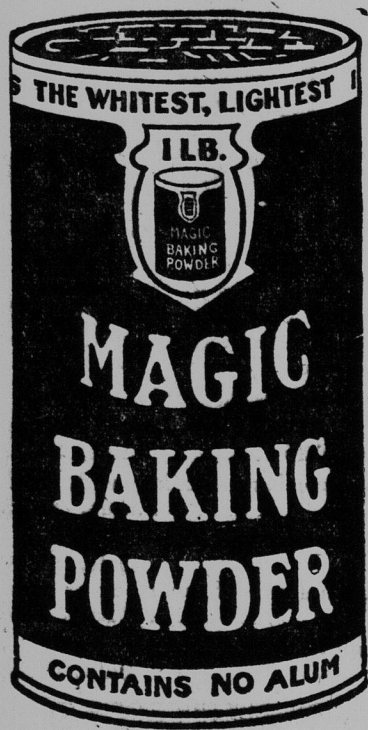

Further consideration of the estimates of county institutions was given by the finance committee of the municipal council at a meeting held yesterday afternoon in the office of the county secretary.

It was decided to charge the salaries of the parish clerks against the parishes, thus enabling each parish to pay its clerk what it thought proper.

The committee decided to recommend to the council that W. H. Allingham be requested to make returns as a clerk of the peace to the county secretary, and on his failure to make proper returns for him to be removed from office.

The commissioners of the General Public Hospital went over their estimates again yesterday morning. The commissioners returned the estimates to the committee with a letter to the effect that they had again carefully reconsidered every item of the estimates and, while they appreciated the efforts of the committee in trying to keep taxes down, out of consideration of the interests of the patients and the charge entrusted on the board, they could not revise the estimates.

The committee decided to recommend that the amount paid by the hospital to interns, that is, the young doctors in residence in the hospital, be reduced from $50 to $20 a month. There are now four interns at the hospital.

Dr. J. R. Nugent was present before the committee and explained the reasons why he had returned the $200 to the Board of Health due him for medical inspection of schools in the parish of Simonds. He said that he had obtained a list of the schools in operation in Simonds, but when he went to examine the scholars they were not there. He visited three schools in one section and found them closed down. He said that he got tired hunting for the schools and had found better employment. The doctor pointed out the need for medical inspection in the schools, but said that the benefit faded out through lack of interest on the part of the parents. During the previous year he had found a large number of children with disabilities. Last year he found that these same children had not been treated. He thought that there should be some way of carrying out the doctor's orders rather than leaving it purely optional with the parents. Telling the child that it was sick and needed treatment did not necessarily mean that it got treatment. To that extent the act was ineffective, the doctor said.

In the discussion of the contingencies fund the salary of $400 for the clerk of the peace was considered at length. B. L. Gerow, the present clerk, appeared before the committee and explained his duties, convincing the councillors that the salary should remain at $400. A motion to this effect was passed.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE, NORTH END

The St. Peter's sub-division of the Catholic Women's League, at its regular meeting in St. Peter's hall last night, heard most encouraging reports of its successful undertakings. Miss M. H. McCloskey, the president, was in the chair and there was a large attendance. Miss Sarah Lynch as treasurer, in her report showed the finances to be in a flourishing condition. The party sale, the league's most recent effort, had been a financial success. Miss Ida Keigan reported as secretary and the vice-president, Mrs. M. D. Coll, convener of the membership committee, reported that the membership was increasing steadily. Mrs. Coll pointed out the advisability of encouraging the younger members to take an active interest in the league.

A report was given of the sewing classes for school girls which have been organized with Mrs. M. D. Coll and Miss Alice Dever as convener. The instructresses for the classes were named as follows: Mrs. J. D. Maher, Miss Hor-tense Maher, Mrs. P. Fitzgerald, Miss Annie Carlyn, Mrs. Regina Klerwin and Miss Alice Dever.

The spiritual director, Rev. George Coffin, S. S. R., in a brief address complimented the league on the work which it had accomplished in the year just closed.

THE MCINTYRE CASE

"I am instructed to say by the trustees that they have not the slightest criticism of Peter McIntyre's honesty of purpose. Captain McIntyre has given the trustees every possible assistance and there was not anything that had been brought to the trustees' notice that in any way affected Captain McIntyre's personal integrity," declared Dr. E. R. Taylor, K. C., counsel for the trustees, the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association, at the final hearing in the bankruptcy court yesterday afternoon before Chief Justice McKeown into the affairs of Peter McIntyre. The afternoon was occupied by addresses by W. H. Harrison, counsel for Peter McIntyre and Allan McIntyre, and by Dr. Taylor and a short address in rebuttal by J. L.

Ralston, K. C., for creditors opposing a twenty-five per cent composition. Mr. Ralston said he would like to know where the money would be obtained for this composition. Certainly, the assets of the estate did not show it. He heard that it might be the bank. This struck him as rather peculiar.

The case is now in the hands of Chief Justice McKeown, who has promised an early decision.

POPE BENEDICT IS GREATLY PLEASED

London, Jan. 12.—The following telegram from Pope Benedict to King George, congratulating him upon the conclusion of the Anglo-Irish treaty, was made public here tonight:

"Overjoyed at the agreement happily reached regarding Ireland, congratulate your majesty warmly on having contributed effectively to this great work of peace."

The king replied as follows: "I thank your holiness warmly for the kind message which afforded me sincere gratification."

LAST SHOW BY THE JIMMIE EVANS REVUE COMPANY

"Chuckles of 1922" is the title of the bill Jimmie Evans is presenting at the Queen square theatre for his farewell bill, and both comedy and musical numbers appeared exceptionally pleasing to the large audience yesterday.

Billy Loker in "Wonderful Mother" was greatly appreciated. Kitten Frase, the pleasing soubrette, who has been the biggest kind of a favorite, sang "Mandy and Me" which received much applause. Irene Finley and chorus sang with "Stop Me." Mary Clark and chorus in "When There Ain't No Jazz" presented an outstanding feature of the programme. A saxophone trio by Will Loker, Agnes and Mary Clark, also were greatly applauded. Joe Devine in his sherry manner, sang "Gee Gee." Agnes Clark and chorus in "Peggy O'Neill" were heartily applauded. Jimmy Evans and Joe Devine sang "I Miss the Old Folks," which brought forth rounds of applause.

The chorus of girls always are an attractive feature of the shows, and Jimmy Evans keeps the girls costumed with a change in variety and novelty of design that must increase the cost of producing his revue. Tonight and tomorrow is the last chance to see this popular company.

Does a woman love her husband less when children come?

WHICH comes first, a woman's love for her husband or her love for her babies? Which do you think should have the preference? Can a man become jealous of his own children? What would you do if your husband treated you as Duncan McKail treated Chaddie?

One of the most stupendous of all marriage problems is handled in a fascinating manner in "The Prairie Child," by Arthur Stringer, (author of "The Prairie Mother") beginning in Pictorial Review for February. "The Prairie Mother" created a sensation last year in Pictorial Review and when it was running we received hundreds of letters from our readers saying they didn't believe that any man could have such an insight into the soul of a woman. They will say the same thing about "The Prairie Child." It is almost unbelievable that a man could have written it. Don't miss it for anything.
