BASEBALL.

Glenwoods Win Second Game.
The Glenwoods, of the East End
League, defeated the Royals in Fairville
last evening in a fast four inning game,
4-0. Thompson who heaved for the East Enders, pitched a no-hit game; he was received by Brittain. The battery for the Royals was Noble and O'Toole.Roses vs. Alerts.
The Roses and Alerts will meet tonight on the Marathons grounds in the fifth game of the series between the North and East End aggregations.
The Alerts line will be McNutt, catcher; Lawlor, pitcher; Donovan, first;
Graves, second; Stewart, third; Milan,
short; Riley, center; Gallagher, right;
Parlee, left.Was No Hit Game
The Glenwoods of the East End League, took the second game in their series from the Royals, of the Fairville League on the Firemen's Park, Fairville last evening by a score of 7-0. Thompson and Brittain formed the battery for the winners and the heaver is credited with the feat of pitching a hitless game.Nobles and O'Toole provided the artillery for the Fairville aggregation but the Fairville pitcher was found for ten safe wallpops. There was a large crowd in attendance.

GLORIOUS WAR.

(John O'Keefe.)
Come, roll up the drum, O Caesar! O
Caesar! till the wolves in the sheepskin roar!
But never dream that your troops can bar one shape from your palace door.
The Mother of all the mothers that are cries, "Kill my sons no more!"
"We go to war!" cry out the kings,
And down the mad world's side
There springs the deadliest of things,
Fire-worship, fury-eyed—
The culture goddess, whose red wings
A young lamb's heart has dyed!
O Kaiser! Lord of the million guns!
Come list at the peasant's cot.
A mother waits for her darling ones
with the battle fever hot;
"O King! You call for my sons, my sons to go to their deaths—
What?"

IMPERIAL--"THE MAN IN THE STREET"

Novel by Mary Inlay Taylor

OUTLINE OF THE STORY:
With the aid of drink, Gadsden has slid far down the social ladder. His only possession left is an unacted play. Richerson, a millionaire spendthrift, steals the play and Kitty French, whom Gadsden loved in the old days, head the company that is to play it. Through the loyalty and efforts of Kitty the down-and-out man comes into his own. It is a powerful soul-stirring story with a deep tone of romance.GLENDIN CAST OF PLAYERS:
