You will find, too, that all itching and lead to a possible 300 in Toronto alone.

Not only are there those who are already residents of the city, but a great impetus should be given the movement by reason of so many blind soldiers returning from the front.

It was pointed out by those in charge of the organization that a great deal had already been accomplished with the class of thirteen little girls, who were making rapid progress with knitting and other fine art work.

Herman Schaefer played in a game in Havana recently, and when he went to the bat he smashed out a two-base hit sond then stole third. After three limings Schaefer was just about ehausted, and had to retire. No league baseball is being played in Cuba this winter. The baseball park has been dismantled, and there will be no more games there until the new park is completed next winter. The few games which have been played took place at the rece track outside of
