With eleven pitchers and six catchers Davis will start for Mobile, Ala., on February 20. The other twenty members of the club will leave on March 7 for Mobile. The entire squad will stay in New Orleans from March 18 until April 6, then start north, arriving at Cleveland for the opening game on April 11.

Sixteen clubs have been licensed in San Francisco, Cal., to hold four pound professional boxing matches. Each club, designated as class B, will pay a license of $1,200 annually for the privilege of staging fights a year. The new fight order divides monthly permits, permitting twenty round bouts among the clubs designated as class A.

In Albany, N. Y., on Tuesday night "Kid" Henry, of Troy, scored a clean knockout over "Joe" Urvani, of Glens Falls, in the fourth round of a ten round bout. Urvani was knocked down three times before he was put away with a left to the jaw.

COLD SPELL IN NORTHERN CITIES BRINGS OUT NOVEL MOTOR SLED

The long period of cold weather in Northern cities has brought out a large number of motor sleds of more or less ingenious types. Frank B. Willis, of Indianapolis, believes his product is unique. Mr. Willis started out by equipping his Flanders "20" with runners in front instead of wheels. He had a lot of fun with this rig, but had so much power and speed at his disposal that he cast about to make his vehicle more commodious. He obtained an extra Flanders "20" body of the Suburban type, front axle attached, and joined it to his own car, back to back. The extra car and was mounted on runners and coupled to a steering device. Five seats were mounted on the sled body. The rig has shown ability to make forty miles an hour.

Among the owners who will probably be on hand are W. A. Reid, Harry Tipton, Rex Coffin, W. H. Coleman, Thomas Hayes, C. M. Kerrison, Frank Mullin, James Lattin, Willard Broad, William A. Barlow, Wm. F. Kierman, John F. Kierman, Arthur S. Connors, F. O'Regan, James Flood, William Brinkley, William Phelan, James Brickley, J. A. Barry, Angus Chalmers, Fred Evers, William McIntyre, Alex. Clark, John McCarthy, John Davidson, Harry Gillen, W. H. McQuade, Lewis King, James Peltier, John Jackson, Herbert Flemming, John Ross, Walter Campbell, William McDonald, P. McDevitt, H. Shaw, Harry Barry, William Sherwood and Rose Bros.

Light harness horses "looked cheap" to the casual spectator at Madison Square Garden, New York, on Tuesday, when a pair with a public record of 2:03.54 was struck off for $180 in the Fasig-Tipton sale. The horse was My Star, a handsome little chestnut gelding, campaigned in the Grand Circuit a few years ago by Miss Lottis Crabtree. He is fourteen years old and has seen a lot of service on track and road. D. W. Taylor, of Utica, bought him. Offerings at the opening of the Madison Square Garden sale were very ordinary, and the highest price of the day was $725, paid by John Dieckhoff, of Harrisburg, Pa., for the brown trotting stallion King Redwood, 2:15.34. Several horses were purchased for amateur harness racing.

Thistle-Carlton Match Postponed.
The match between the Thistles and Carlton had to be called off yesterday on account of the soft ice. It is expected that the contest will take place some time next week.

Leagues.
The Right Kind of Player.
Someone was "kidding" Chief Querrie of the Indians about Jack Shea, the Ottawa defence man, who, it is rumored, will play with the Indians next summer, and telling Querrie that Shea was not good enough for the Tecumseh team. Chief came back with this reply: "Shea will play good lacrosse in good company and, anyway, I like the way he gallops up and down the field and continually smiles. Give me the fellow who can laugh when they are getting their bumps and you will see the real player. They are all apt to let their angry passions rise once in a while but it is the fellow who smiles and comes up for more that will go the limit in any line of sport."

HUNGER-IMPULSED WOLVES.
INVADING THE VILLAGES
Vienna, Feb. 9.—The inhabitants of several villages near the Romy Mountains in Hungary are being almost kept prisoners in their houses by numerous packs of wolves which the intense cold has driven out of the high-lying forests. Cattle and other domestic animals have fallen a prey to their depredations. One village near Gross-Banya was treated to the remarkable spectacle of a fight in a garden between a bear, which had come to the village to look for something to eat, and several of wolves which had come for the same purpose.

The bear defended himself stoutly with blows of his paws, and killed two of his assailants, but he was finally forced to take refuge up a tree, where he was shot by a village sportsman, after the wolves had given up the siege.

A farmer at Veszod saw a wolf put his head through the half-opened door of the room in which he was sleeping. With great presence of mind he slammed the door to, caught the animal's neck between door and doorknob, and killed it with a blow on the head from a heavy chair. The authorities are arranging a drive on a large scale, by which it is hoped to clear the inhabited country of the wolves.

"Rube" Marquard, the great left-handed pitcher of the New York Giants, is now a hold out for more money, but when springtime comes along this big fellow will no doubt be on the firing line.

BURNS NO MATCH FOR McFARLAND

It was the same story in the ring of the Fairmont Athletic Club, New York, on Tuesday night that is usually told when "Pac" McFarland, of Chicago, is one of the contestants. McFarland won easily, although the bout went the limit of ten rounds. He found a willing opponent, however, in "Kid" Burns, of the west side, New York, who took a hard grueling.

McFarland was the master in every round, his combination of speed, coolness and cleverness proving a puzzle to the local pugilist. Occasionally Burns managed to find time to crash a hard swing through McFarland's guard, but the occasions were infrequent. Burns usually had his hands full trying to block a fusillade of punches that came from every angle.

Every round found a new mark on the face of the local man where McFarland's punches played a tattoo. For eight rounds the Western boy merely drew a long breath while he pummeled his man. Then in the ninth, when Burns appeared to be on the verge of submission, he rallied suddenly and took McFarland and everybody else by surprise. Coming out of a turtle-like defense, Burns quickly tipped two lefts to the stomach and then brought his right up to McFarland's left eye. The punch was a hard one, and closed up "Mac's" eye right. It also served to awaken the latter to his best speed, and Burns paid dearly for that blow before the bell rang. In the tenth Burns gained courage and took the aggressive again, only to find himself outpunched and outgeneralled in every respect.

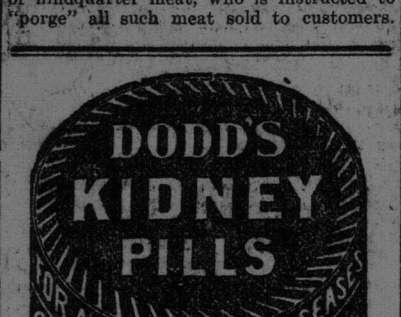

It was McFarland's clever feinting that had Burns all at sea. The Chicagoer tied his man into knots and then shot his blows home with deadly accuracy. Three-fourths of the time Burns was on his heels and against the ropes, covering up his features and anatomy as well as he could, but taking a hard beating despite his defense. McFarland was on top of his man all the time, jabbing with his left and crossing his right, while Burns kept bobbing around as though on a loose hinge.

Again McFarland's knockout punching power was not in evidence. Some thought he was saving his hands and taking no chances on account of his bout tonight against "Young" Erne at Philadelphia. Certain it was that despite the punishing Burns was still strong and willing at the end. Burns weighed in at 139 pounds and McFarland at 130. The latter, however, had an advantage in both height and reach.

RECEPTION AT GOLF CLUB.
The ladies' committee of the Saint John Golf Club gave a delightful reception for the lady members at the club house yesterday afternoon. The president, Mrs. George K. McLeod, and the other members of the committee received the guests as they arrived and at the tea tables Mrs. F. A. Stetson and Mrs. H. B. Schofield presided, assisted by some of the young ladies. The decorations of yellow jonquils and the glowing open fire made the room very attractive and homelike. There were about sixty ladies present and the function was a most enjoyable one. During the earlier part of the afternoon several tables of bridge were organized for the devotees of the game.

JEWISH RULES ABOUT MEAT.
London, Feb. 9.—The Jewish ecclesiastical authorities have issued a notice in which it is pointed out that hindquarters of animals, even if killed according to Jewish rites, are not kosher unless they have been properly "porged" by a qualified shomer appointed by the Board of Rabbis; that all kidney fat, in, and remains, absolute trifa and Jews are forbidden to eat it, and that a duly qualified shomer appointed by the board is to regulate attendance at the shops licensed for the sale of hindquarter meat, who is instructed to "porg" all such meat sold to customers.
