AMUSEMENTS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

NICKEL

The Nickel Theatre was packed to the doors again yesterday afternoon and evening, when the Puritan Quartette of mixed voices continued its tremendous success. Today these magnificent vocalists will change their programme and will be heard in the following numbers: "The Immortal Scotch Ballad, Annie Laurie," which they harmonize most delightfully, and a cute little comedy number, with dancing accompaniment, entitled "Under the Yum-Yum Tree." Musical critics who have heard the Puritans in their opening numbers are unanimous in claiming for them the best combination of voices heard in St. John, aside from those heard on grand concert programmes.

The pictorial department of the Nickel's show abounds in good features of which the Vitaphone society play, "An Inherited Taint," is the special item. There is a comedy number of the western type by the Selig Company, under the name The Cowboy and the Lady, which is very laughable. The Biograph Co. contribute the third picture, in The Chief's Daughter, an idyllic of the early settlers. Miss Elsie Wallace will have a new number and the orchestra has a budget of novelties as well. Next week the Nickel will present a startling novelty in an actual living photograph, at close range, of the destruction of the American battleship Texas, by her sister ship, the New Hampshire.

OPERA HOUSE

The Cowboy and the Lady, played by Miss Helen Grayce and her company in the Opera House last evening was well received by the large audience. Miss Grayce, as Mrs. Weston, gave her usual finished performance and Messrs. Abbey, Harris, Lee, Burkhart and McCarthy and Miss Macheth excellent character studies. Mr. Brooke, as always, played the lead to the satisfaction of all. Miss Beardsley was dainty and pleasing as Midge and Miss Larkins also played a good part.

Tonight the Man of the Hour, one of the strongest bills in the company's repertoire, will be presented.

THE LYRIC

A combination of skill and laughter, with a laugh in every move, what the set of the Mad Day & Co. who will be the main attraction of the Lyric Theatre for the rest of the week, is destined to be. They present an unusual performance with the aid of several puppets, a teddy bear and a special trick house setting. The Selig production, "Zulu Land," will be the feature in the picture programme which also contains a Kalem war story, "By A Woman's Wit," and a Pathé Comedy, "A Simple Mistake."

PHYTHIANS PRESENT

A DIAMOND PIN TO WM. E. HOPPER

The regular meeting of New Brunswick Lodge, No. 1, K. of P., which took place in their rooms, Gorman street, last evening, was marked by a presentation to William Hopper, of the Times staff, one of the members, who will leave soon for Montreal where he has accepted a position with the McLean Publishing Company. The presentation, a diamond pin, was accompanied by an address signed by F. C. Killam, chancellor, and James Monahan, K. of R. S. Mr. Hopper replied fittingly, thanking the members for their remembrance.

The officers were filled last evening by past chancellors, and they conferred the rank of master on five candidates. Those occupying the offices were: G. S. Everett, C. C. C. H. Smyth, V. C. W. E. Hopper, P. W. P. Thompson, M. of W. B. Stillwell, M. of A.; Beverly Stevens, K. of R. S.; J. P. Brown, M. of F.; J. M. Jenkins, M. of L.; J. S. Brown, I. G.; R. H. Irwin, O. G. Light refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Rheumatism Relief Found

Many in this vicinity have not only found relief but a cure in the following prescription, which was printed last year in the newspapers. Any one having a friend suffering with rheumatism would do well to clip and present it. Undoubtedly the ingredients are ordinary in character, but the peculiar combination of compounding seems to effect results far more than marvelous. Have a friend mix it who will use the true and saving benefit only.

Iodide of Potassium..... 12 grs.
Sodium Sulphate..... 12 grs.
Wine of Colchicum..... 12 oz.
Comp. Elix. Sarsaparilla..... 1 oz.
Comp. Ph. Saline..... 1 oz.
Comp. Syrup Sarsaparilla..... 1 oz.
Mix and take a teaspoonful after each meal and one at bedtime. After the first week gradually increase the dose to two teaspoonfuls. Be persistent and regular in its use if you expect a cure.
