RECENT DEATHS

A. McN. Shaw.

A Montreal despatch says that A. McN. Shaw of 708 St. Bonifacio street, that city, died at his residence on Sunday night of nephritis, after an illness of more than two months. Mr. Shaw was in his sixty-seventh year, and was a member of the Douglas Methodist church of Montreal. He is survived by one son, H. Leroy Shaw. He had spent the winter at Barbados, and fell ill on March 30, two days after his return to Montreal. He was born in Prince Edward Island, but he lived most of his life in New Brunswick. There he was for many years manager of the Imperial Life Assurance Company for the province. He then became manager of the same company for the province of Quebec. He went to Montreal in January, 1908, and in 1907 went to Toronto, where he held the position of superintendent of agencies for Canada of the Imperial Life Assurance Company, with headquarters in Toronto. Mr. Shaw retired nine years ago. Since then he had spent all his winters in the south, either at Bermuda, Barbados or at some neighboring island. The summers he had spent at his summer cottage on the St. John river. He had many friends who will be sorry to learn of his death.

The Late Father Hamilton.

The Halifax Chronicle says:—Rev. William Bernard Hamilton, parish priest at Parrboro, died at the infirmary on Friday at the age of sixty-two. He had been in failing health for over a year. The funeral will take place on Monday morning after Pontifical High Mass at the Cathedral. The interment will be at Holy Cross Cemetery.

Father Hamilton was born in Richibucto, N. B. His parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton of that town. He studied for the priesthood in Charlottetown. He was very well known throughout the province, for in the course of his ministry he visited various districts, being stationed for some time at Amherst, in Yarmouth County, and at Halifax, where he was a former rector of St. Mary's Parish. He visited Bermuda as chaplain of the British forces there some years ago. Father Hamilton was universally admired and beloved by those with whom he came in contact during the course of his long years of labor in the church. A sister, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. W. B. Barkley, of California, has arrived in the city to attend his funeral. Mrs. T. W. Murphy, of 106 Young avenue, is a niece of the deceased.

It is worthy of note that J. Best, who died last Friday at his home in River Glade, had reached the advanced age of 102 years.

The death of Martin McCarthy occurred on Monday, May 31, at the Mater Misericordiae Home where he had been an inmate for the last few days. Mr. McCarthy, who was formerly an employee of the Canadian Government Railways, was the son of the late John and Anne McCarthy. He leaves no near relatives. The funeral will take place on Wednesday from the Mater Misericordiae Home, and interment will be made in Quispamsis, King's county.
