

DEVOTIONAL MEETINGS.

I. THE WEEKLY LECTURE.

For the purpose of cultivating the interest of Professors and Students in one another and in their respective work, of fostering a devotional spirit, and of dealing with such matters of Christian and ministerial duty as do not come within the ordinary range of College prelections, an hour is set apart in the afternoon of each Monday during the session, the exercises of which are presided over by the Professors in rotation, when all Students, theological and literary, are expected to be present.

II. STUDENTS' PRAYER MEETING.

This meeting, of a purely devotional character, is held every week at an hour fixed at the commencement of the session, the exercises being conducted by the students in rotation.

MISSION WORK.

During the summer vacation Students may engage, and all Divinity Students are expected to engage, in missionary work, in the numerous and extensive fields of labour provided by the thirty-three Presbyteries of the Church.

Students in Theology are also permitted to preach a limited number of Sabbaths during the session.

Students are thus early made acquainted with the practical work of the ministry and enabled to gratify their desire to preach the Gospel, while providing at least in part for their maintenance during the period of study.

BURSARY FUND.

While the authorities of the College express their unqualified disapproval of the indiscriminate subsidizing of Theological Students, as tending to destroy a spirit of manly independence essential to those whose position is that of Christian gentlemen and scholars, and as inducing inferior men to enter upon Theological studies, they at the same time recognize the claims which are presented in the peculiar cases of deserving Students, and provide a fund in the hands of the Senate, out of which temporary or permanent assistance may be rendered to them.

The Fund for French Students is in the hands of the Convener of the French Evangelization Committee.
