The town of Belgrade is now almost completely encircled, and the armed insurgents from the surrounding districts are constantly marching and have resolved on desperate resistance.

The London Times states that there is not a single encouraging feature in the cotton trade of North Lancashire. The condition of the markets is worse than ever, and the outlook is most gloomy. Goods are not only being piled up in Manchester warehouses, but are fast accumulating in the mill warehouses. Small manufacturers are being forced to sell at almost any sacrifice, and before the crisis is passed there is no doubt many will succumb.
