

NEW PROBLEMS IN OLD CHINA

Major Fox Thinks Insurrectionary Wave Will Carry All Before It

(From Friday's Daily.) The whole of the province of Chi-Mi, although it has been under the influence of the Manchian dynasty for nearly three centuries...

London, Nov. 24.—The bye-election for the Hitchin division of Hertfordshire, rendered necessary through the death by suicide of the sitting Unionist member, Dr. Hillier, resulted in the election of Lord Robert Cecil by an increased majority over T. T. Gray, Liberal, the figures being Cecil, 5,142; Gray, 3,902.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 23.—Tom Gunn, the only Chinese so far known who operates an aeroplane, is in San Francisco, negotiating with revolutionary leaders to send him to China to help fight the Manchus. Gunn is an ardent rebel and says he is eager to do his duty to his country flying machine for the army. He uses an aeroplane of his own construction.

Ottawa, Nov. 24.—At a Liberal caucus this morning, Thomas McNutt was appointed permanent chairman to succeed John Toimie, who went down to defeat in North Bruce.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—Henry Clay Beattie, jr., before his death in the chair, at 7.23 a. m. to-day, confessed to the murder of his wife. The statement, which was given out in the form of a down-town hotel, follows: "I, Henry Clay Beattie, jr., desiring of standing right before God and man, do on this, the 23rd day of November, 1911, confess my guilt of the crime charged against me. Much that was published concerning the details were not true but the awful fact, without the harrowing circumstances, remains. For this action, I am truly sorry and believing that I am at peace with God and will soon pass into His presence, this statement is made."

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

DR. J. C. ROPER IS ELECTED BISHOP

CHOICE COMPROMISE BETWEEN TWO ORDERS

Rev. John Charles Roper, principal of the General Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, was at 4 o'clock this morning chosen bishop of the diocese of British Columbia, in succession to Bishop Ferrin, on the eleventh ballot.

Vienna, Nov. 24.—The Austrian steamer Romania was wrecked to-day near Rovigno. It is reported that sixty persons were drowned. A steamer had swept the coast from the Adriatic for three days and caused much damage to shipping.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—Accused by jealousy, Grover Harris shot Myrtle Motz in the neck to-day, then turned the weapon upon himself, putting a bullet through his brain. He died an hour later. The girl is 24 years old and Mr. Carnegie a brewer in comparison, is 76. They have been close friends for many years, and always congratulate each other on their birthday.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

CONFESSED TO THE MURDER OF WIFE

YOUNG BEATTIE GAVE STATEMENT TO MINISTER

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—Henry Clay Beattie, jr., before his death in the chair, at 7.23 a. m. to-day, confessed to the murder of his wife. The statement, which was given out in the form of a down-town hotel, follows: "I, Henry Clay Beattie, jr., desiring of standing right before God and man, do on this, the 23rd day of November, 1911, confess my guilt of the crime charged against me. Much that was published concerning the details were not true but the awful fact, without the harrowing circumstances, remains. For this action, I am truly sorry and believing that I am at peace with God and will soon pass into His presence, this statement is made."

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

STEAMER WRECKED; SIXTY LIVES LOST

Vienna, Nov. 24.—The Austrian steamer Romania was wrecked to-day near Rovigno. It is reported that sixty persons were drowned. A steamer had swept the coast from the Adriatic for three days and caused much damage to shipping.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—Accused by jealousy, Grover Harris shot Myrtle Motz in the neck to-day, then turned the weapon upon himself, putting a bullet through his brain. He died an hour later. The girl is 24 years old and Mr. Carnegie a brewer in comparison, is 76. They have been close friends for many years, and always congratulate each other on their birthday.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

TORY-NATIONALIST ALLIANCE SCORED

HATRED AND AMBITION HAVE BEEN MERGED

Hon. G. Lemieux Replies to Hon. F. D. Monk—Strange Companions

Ottawa, Nov. 24.—With a temporary paralysis of the Ottawa electric plant and the consequent plunging into darkness of a large part of the city, including Parliament Hill, the wheels of legislation ceased to move in the Commons chambers last night. A quorum of the House met in darkness only relieved by the feeble light of some fluttering candles and the minister of public works moved an adjournment until to-day.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—Accused by jealousy, Grover Harris shot Myrtle Motz in the neck to-day, then turned the weapon upon himself, putting a bullet through his brain. He died an hour later. The girl is 24 years old and Mr. Carnegie a brewer in comparison, is 76. They have been close friends for many years, and always congratulate each other on their birthday.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE

Movement Endorsed After Stormy Meeting at Vancouver

Vancouver, Nov. 24.—After a somewhat stormy three-hour meeting of the clergy and laymen of the Vancouver Methodist churches, held in Wesley church last evening, a resolution was passed endorsing the industrial peace movement.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—Accused by jealousy, Grover Harris shot Myrtle Motz in the neck to-day, then turned the weapon upon himself, putting a bullet through his brain. He died an hour later. The girl is 24 years old and Mr. Carnegie a brewer in comparison, is 76. They have been close friends for many years, and always congratulate each other on their birthday.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

SLOWLY CLOSING IN ON NANKING

ADVANCE OF REBELS CAREFULLY PLANNED

Revolutionary Leaders Blame Manchus for Murders at San Fu

Nanking, Nov. 24.—The revolutionary forces are slowly but surely enclosing Nanking. They are moving with the utmost deliberation, each position being entrenched. The main body makes about five miles daily.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—Accused by jealousy, Grover Harris shot Myrtle Motz in the neck to-day, then turned the weapon upon himself, putting a bullet through his brain. He died an hour later. The girl is 24 years old and Mr. Carnegie a brewer in comparison, is 76. They have been close friends for many years, and always congratulate each other on their birthday.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

FIRE

Major Fox Thinks Insurrectionary Wave Will Carry All Before It

London, Nov. 24.—The bye-election for the Hitchin division of Hertfordshire, rendered necessary through the death by suicide of the sitting Unionist member, Dr. Hillier, resulted in the election of Lord Robert Cecil by an increased majority over T. T. Gray, Liberal, the figures being Cecil, 5,142; Gray, 3,902.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 23.—Tom Gunn, the only Chinese so far known who operates an aeroplane, is in San Francisco, negotiating with revolutionary leaders to send him to China to help fight the Manchus. Gunn is an ardent rebel and says he is eager to do his duty to his country flying machine for the army. He uses an aeroplane of his own construction.

Ottawa, Nov. 24.—At a Liberal caucus this morning, Thomas McNutt was appointed permanent chairman to succeed John Toimie, who went down to defeat in North Bruce.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—Henry Clay Beattie, jr., before his death in the chair, at 7.23 a. m. to-day, confessed to the murder of his wife. The statement, which was given out in the form of a down-town hotel, follows: "I, Henry Clay Beattie, jr., desiring of standing right before God and man, do on this, the 23rd day of November, 1911, confess my guilt of the crime charged against me. Much that was published concerning the details were not true but the awful fact, without the harrowing circumstances, remains. For this action, I am truly sorry and believing that I am at peace with God and will soon pass into His presence, this statement is made."

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

TIENTSIN RESIDENT SPEAKS ON REBELLION

Major Fox Thinks Insurrectionary Wave Will Carry All Before It

London, Nov. 24.—The bye-election for the Hitchin division of Hertfordshire, rendered necessary through the death by suicide of the sitting Unionist member, Dr. Hillier, resulted in the election of Lord Robert Cecil by an increased majority over T. T. Gray, Liberal, the figures being Cecil, 5,142; Gray, 3,902.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 23.—Tom Gunn, the only Chinese so far known who operates an aeroplane, is in San Francisco, negotiating with revolutionary leaders to send him to China to help fight the Manchus. Gunn is an ardent rebel and says he is eager to do his duty to his country flying machine for the army. He uses an aeroplane of his own construction.

Ottawa, Nov. 24.—At a Liberal caucus this morning, Thomas McNutt was appointed permanent chairman to succeed John Toimie, who went down to defeat in North Bruce.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—Henry Clay Beattie, jr., before his death in the chair, at 7.23 a. m. to-day, confessed to the murder of his wife. The statement, which was given out in the form of a down-town hotel, follows: "I, Henry Clay Beattie, jr., desiring of standing right before God and man, do on this, the 23rd day of November, 1911, confess my guilt of the crime charged against me. Much that was published concerning the details were not true but the awful fact, without the harrowing circumstances, remains. For this action, I am truly sorry and believing that I am at peace with God and will soon pass into His presence, this statement is made."

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

LIBERAL CAUCUS

WANTS TO AID REBELS

Ottawa, Nov. 24.—At a Liberal caucus this morning, Thomas McNutt was appointed permanent chairman to succeed John Toimie, who went down to defeat in North Bruce.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—Henry Clay Beattie, jr., before his death in the chair, at 7.23 a. m. to-day, confessed to the murder of his wife. The statement, which was given out in the form of a down-town hotel, follows: "I, Henry Clay Beattie, jr., desiring of standing right before God and man, do on this, the 23rd day of November, 1911, confess my guilt of the crime charged against me. Much that was published concerning the details were not true but the awful fact, without the harrowing circumstances, remains. For this action, I am truly sorry and believing that I am at peace with God and will soon pass into His presence, this statement is made."

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

GERMANS TOO AWAIT SPEECH

REGARD SIR E. GREY'S STATEMENT AS IMPORTANT

Rumor That Minister Will Resign If Any Lack of Confidence is Shown

Berlin, Nov. 24.—Sir Edward Grey's statement in the British House of Commons next Monday in regard to the Moroccan affair is awaited by the most thoughtful Germans with intense interest not far removed from anxiety.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—Accused by jealousy, Grover Harris shot Myrtle Motz in the neck to-day, then turned the weapon upon himself, putting a bullet through his brain. He died an hour later. The girl is 24 years old and Mr. Carnegie a brewer in comparison, is 76. They have been close friends for many years, and always congratulate each other on their birthday.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

MONARCHISTS REPULSED

Linton, Nov. 24.—Advised of Montenegro say that small group of monarchists, believed to be the vanguard of the main body, has crossed the frontier and tried to capture the town, but were repulsed.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—Accused by jealousy, Grover Harris shot Myrtle Motz in the neck to-day, then turned the weapon upon himself, putting a bullet through his brain. He died an hour later. The girl is 24 years old and Mr. Carnegie a brewer in comparison, is 76. They have been close friends for many years, and always congratulate each other on their birthday.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

WILL BE TRANSFERRED

Ottawa, Nov. 23.—It is announced that the advertising branch, department of trade and commerce, would be transferred by the government to the post office department. Hon. Pellerin, postmaster-general, made the announcement this morning.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—Accused by jealousy, Grover Harris shot Myrtle Motz in the neck to-day, then turned the weapon upon himself, putting a bullet through his brain. He died an hour later. The girl is 24 years old and Mr. Carnegie a brewer in comparison, is 76. They have been close friends for many years, and always congratulate each other on their birthday.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

CHARGED WITH MURDER

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Mrs. Jane Quinn, whose husband was found shot to death in his bed recently, was indicted to-day by the grand jury charged with his murder.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—Accused by jealousy, Grover Harris shot Myrtle Motz in the neck to-day, then turned the weapon upon himself, putting a bullet through his brain. He died an hour later. The girl is 24 years old and Mr. Carnegie a brewer in comparison, is 76. They have been close friends for many years, and always congratulate each other on their birthday.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

THREE ASPHYXIATED

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 24.—Mrs. F. E. Ware and her two young sons, Harley, aged 7, and Cyril, aged 9, were found dead in the kitchen of their Page street flat this morning. All had been asphyxiated by an open stove in the gas range.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—Accused by jealousy, Grover Harris shot Myrtle Motz in the neck to-day, then turned the weapon upon himself, putting a bullet through his brain. He died an hour later. The girl is 24 years old and Mr. Carnegie a brewer in comparison, is 76. They have been close friends for many years, and always congratulate each other on their birthday.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

FALLS FROM PIER

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 24.—Captain Bennett of the big freight and passenger steamer Honolulu, operating between Seattle and Honolulu, reported to the police early to-day that D. F. Corto, chief cook, had fallen off Albert Bros. milling company's pier at 1:45 o'clock and had been drowned. Deck hands saw the cook trip and fall. The captain sent out boats and life preservers but the body was not found.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—Accused by jealousy, Grover Harris shot Myrtle Motz in the neck to-day, then turned the weapon upon himself, putting a bullet through his brain. He died an hour later. The girl is 24 years old and Mr. Carnegie a brewer in comparison, is 76. They have been close friends for many years, and always congratulate each other on their birthday.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

WILL ABOLISH TAX

South Vancouver Councillor Against Imposing Liquor Licence Fee

South Vancouver, Nov. 23.—The liquor licence fee fixed at $100 per year at a meeting of the council. The decision was arrived at after a lengthy discussion, during which Councillor Dickinson expressed himself as being opposed to the collection of any fee on the grounds that the municipality would be collecting a revenue from a business that yearly destroyed hundreds of homes and ruined hospitals and asylums to overflowing. The councillor's objections, however, were not sustained by the rest of the council. The new liquor licence by-law was then given its first reading.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—Accused by jealousy, Grover Harris shot Myrtle Motz in the neck to-day, then turned the weapon upon himself, putting a bullet through his brain. He died an hour later. The girl is 24 years old and Mr. Carnegie a brewer in comparison, is 76. They have been close friends for many years, and always congratulate each other on their birthday.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

JEALOUSY MAN'S DEED

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—Accused by jealousy, Grover Harris shot Myrtle Motz in the neck to-day, then turned the weapon upon himself, putting a bullet through his brain. He died an hour later. The girl is 24 years old and Mr. Carnegie a brewer in comparison, is 76. They have been close friends for many years, and always congratulate each other on their birthday.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.

London, Nov. 24.—The belief prevails in political circles that Sir Edward Grey will retire from the cabinet after his eagerly awaited expiration of foreign relations on November 27 in the House of Commons, and that James Bryce, secretary of the United States, will succeed him.