

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

FREDERICTON, May 20.—Mrs. John Fleming died this evening at 5 o'clock at her home in this city. Deceased was an estimable lady and in her seventy-third year. Her husband has been dead about twenty-three years.

W. T. L. Reed, who recently sold out his broom manufacturing business to Wm. Lawrence, and intends to leave for British Columbia on Wednesday, was presented with a handsomely mounted silver cane by Star Council, Royal Templars, last night.

WOODSTOCK, May 20.—W. A. Connolly of Jacksonville met with a serious loss yesterday afternoon in the destruction of his house and barn by fire. The fire occurred between one and two o'clock from a supposed defective fire running through the attic.

In spite of the fact that the fire started in the daytime, and that the neighbors did all that was possible, it was found that the flames sprang from a headway. One barn was saved. Mr. Connolly lost a large quantity of grain and most of the furniture that was in his house. He had $10,000 insurance, and his loss is estimated beyond the insurance in the neighborhood of $600.

The Dominion building, grand hall in the flag at the American consulate are at half mast, out of respect to Gladstone's memory. Across the street from the A. O. H. rooms is a banner with the words, "In memory of Hon. W. E. Gladstone, while the statesman's portrait hangs in black, is hung in the front of the rooms."

ST. MARTINS, May 20.—This morning William McMurder, while at work in Geo. McDonough's mill, was struck by a log, which cut through his chest, and he died a few hours afterwards. Mr. McMurder was fifty-five years of age and a resident of Basin St. Martins. He leaves a wife and family.

PROVINCIAL NEWS, continued. A search today in Mrs. Ingraham's unlicensed premises and discovered quantity of liquor, which was seized and removed.

DORCHESTER, N. B., May 20.—The May circuit of the supreme court, which was adjourned by Judge Vanwart until today at eleven o'clock, for the purpose of giving his honor time to form his judgment in the case of Hannah Gallagher v. Angus McQueen, bailiff to the Dorchester Hotel company, was reopened at that hour and the judgment of Vanwart, J., read by Judge Hanbury, and the company debarred from the two hundred dollars rent due, which distress was relieved, and the cause tried the first week of this month.

The plaintiff in replevin sought to prove that the lease was invalid, the hotel having been leased by the company for the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors, and for that reason the company could not recover the rent. The company argued that the plaintiff, in order to prove his case, relied on an illegal contract, to which he was himself a party, and therefore by law he could not succeed. This view was held by Judge Vanwart to be correct, and his judgment was therefore delivered in favor of the company, directing that the goods be returned to them. The case was argued by Geo. F. Gregory, Q. C., on behalf of the plaintiff, and M. G. Ed. for the company. There was some excitement this afternoon when Sheriff McQueen again visited the hotel and seized a large quantity of Mrs. Gallagher's furniture as distress for a second mortgage on a real estate due on the first of April, and which she refuses to pay. This was taken from the hotel and stored in the Hillside house, so called, where it is guarded. As Mrs. Gallagher is debarred from re-taking it with effect, she is evidently in a very awkward position, and means will be resorted to but it has been proclaimed by good authority that it will be re-taken by force. This will mean a lively time, as the company have fully determined to hold their goods, which have been advertised for sale on Thursday next. The partners of the hotel are rather scantily furnished tonight.

FREDERICTON, May 21.—On Saturday the rumor was again revived here that Harvey Lawrence and a party of seven, including his two sons, who left Keswick in March for the Klondyke, had all been drowned on a stream near Chilkoot pass, with the additional fact that Eliza Gilpatrick of Danforth, Me., was the only survivor. Telegrams to Danforth and Houston did not confirm these rumors, and it is now hoped the whole story is without foundation.

In all the churches today references were made to the death of Gladstone and the place he left in the Christian church. Flags have been at half-mast on the provincial and city buildings since the announcement of his death.

Col. McLean, who was here Saturday, completed arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the 62nd battalion on their visit here Tuesday.

The Fredericton Boom company will commence rafting operations at Douglas booms tomorrow.

The Sons of England, led by the 71st band, marched to St. Ann's church this afternoon, where Canon Roberts preached the annual sermon to them.

SUSSEX, May 21.—On Thursday afternoon the scene of very impressive services, which constituted a tower of great interest to all who were present, but especially to the Presbyterians of the village and surrounding country. For some time past the bell labored as a creaker in that section, his labors being attended by much success. Two weeks ago the bell was repaired and the chime at Mechanic—has been built and dedicated, and two others—at Marshamville and the oldest at Longfield—were in course of construction, mainly through the instrumentality. A few weeks since Mr. Campbell completed the centre of steeple described for candidates for the Presbyterian ministry, and was graduated from Dalhousie College. After visiting for some time in his early home, he returned to the charge upon which he has been re-elected so useful, and on Thursday afternoon opened his charge according to the form of the church of his choice, and duly appointed "ordained missionaries to the congregation."

The congregation assembled on the occasion was a large one, quite filling the church, and representing all parts of his charge. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Fraser, moderator of the Presbytery of St. John, who delivered a beautiful and appropriate sermon on Retirement for Devotional Purposes, taking as his text Matt. 16. 22. This followed the reading of ordination, which by most present had never before been witnessed. This part of the services, as well as the special solemnity. The charge to the pastor was given

CHAMBERLAIN'S SPEECH. It May have the Effect He Desired—Rumors of an Understanding With France.

LONDON, May 18.—The Standard this morning says "The contrast between the speeches of Lord Salisbury and Mr. Chamberlain has led to fresh rumors of cabinet disension; but it appears probable that if any such differences existed they had reference not to the general position of foreign affairs, but to the situation in West Africa and to the extent of the concessions it was advisable to make in order to establish a friendly understanding with France.
