The world of society has been rather gay of late though, unfortunately, several of the most enjoyable functions have been overlooked by Progress. Among them a buck board ride in which twelve young ladies participated. Then there have been several small, but bright teas, by popular and hospitable hostesses, where geniality and gaiety reigned supreme. This week there are no large events to chronicle and only one or two small ones. On Monday evening, Mr. Charles Troop gave an enjoyable theatre party and though small those who composed it seemed to be having an excellent time and enjoying the "Bellevue Case" very much indeed.

The many friends of Mrs. J. S. Carvell will regret to learn that she is confined to her room at the Hotel Aberdeen through illness, which it is hoped will be of short duration.

Mr. Howard D. Troop went to New York on Wednesday. On Tuesday evening Miss Jones gave a charming little white party at Caverhill Hall. There were three tables only and much interest was taken in the play. A game supper was served during the evening to the following guests: Miss Troop, Mr. Troop, Dr. Skinner, Miss Skinner, Mr. Gordon, Miss Kathleen Furlong, Mr. Winslow, Miss Keator and the house party.

Miss Dyer who has been in Halifax visiting Miss Farrell, returned home today. While in Halifax Miss Dyer was a guest at the brilliant ball given by the officers of H. M. S. Crescent, and the Halifax papers speak of her gown of yellow satin with pearl trimmings, as particularly lovely.

Mrs. Carruthers of Kingston, Ont., who has been visiting Mrs. Burpee left for home on Wednesday of this week.

The Misses Bayard are entertaining Mrs. Clarence Dimock of Windsor.

What ever time can be spared by society ladies just now is being devoted to plain and fancy work for the several bazaar that are to take place later on in the season. The ladies are working very industriously and no doubt the result will be something wonderful. Then the chrysanthemum show is being looked forward to with much pleasure by both the young ladies and the married ones. Last year's show was such a brilliant affair that the ladies confidently expect a repetition this year. Several of the young ladies leading spirits will be missed at the forthcoming show, among them the Misses Puseley who are in mourning and one or two others who are out of the city.

H. D. Troop left this week on a trip to New York. Mrs. Boyle Travers and Dr. H. P. Travers returned this week from a trip to New York. Miss Frances who went with them started, to resume her musical studies at Manhattanville.

Mrs. Thomas Lavers is in St. George, a guest at the Baptist parsonage.

Mr. Geo. C. Lawrence returned home this week from his annual tour of American cities. Judging from his looks and what he says, he must have enjoyed himself immensely. His friends were all glad to welcome him home.

A very large audience attended the anniversary concert in Centenary church school room on Tuesday evening. A delightful musical treat was enjoyed. The only vocal number was a solo by Miss Fidgeon, which was given in that young lady's finished style. Miss Is. Brown contributed two readings that showed her ability as an elocutionist and elicited much applause. The performers of the evening however, were Misses Dorothea Webb of Sackville and Miss Jean Bruce of Moncton, both clever and accomplished violinists. Their various numbers were rendered with a skill and intensity that leaves no doubt of the fact that both young ladies have a future before them; they were accorded a very enthusiastic reception. The entire programme was as follows: Duo, violins, Spangish Dances, Moszkowski, Misses Webb and Bruce; Children's Chorus, Robt. Red Breast Morley McLaughlin; Solo by the Misses Titie Lockhart, Fanny Jenkins, Hannah Logan and Alice McCarty; Violin Solo, a Nocturne in E. Op. 9. No. 2. Chopin, arranged by C. L.
