HUMBLES HIS FORMER TEAM WITH A SHUTOUT.

Here is "Al" Demaree, who in the guise of a Philadelphia pitcher returned to the Polo Ground and, following in the footsteps of other illustrious ball tossers who had failed to measure up to the McGraw standard, spent a pleasant afternoon convincing the Giants' boss that he was no David Harum when it came to swapping players. Demaree went away from the Giants as part payment with Milton Stock for the redoubtable Hans Lohr, who thus far has done nearly everything that the critical "fans" could demand, but in spite of the fine prospects enrolling Lohr there were many at the matinee who felt a strong longing to have "Steamboat Al" back in their midst. It was Demaree's day to laugh, for he humbled the Giants with a shutout. The Giants may "get him" before the season is very old, but until then he'll continue to chuckle every time he hears of McGraw and the Giants.

Why American Beer?

Why spend your money on beer brewed in the United States when you can get a beverage just as good brewed in our homeland of Canada at low price?

Frontenac Blue Label Beer

is made and matured in the same way as high grade American beer from Milwaukee, St. Louis and other places. It is made in our TWO MILLION DOLLAR brewery in Montreal—the "Star" brewery of Canada—by the highest paid brewery workers in the Dominion, under the supervision of a master brewer of international reputation. It is the aristocrat of all Canadian beers, brewed to fill the place of imported beers now made prohibitive in price because of the war. Order it from your dealer today—one trial will make you a constant friend.

MAJOR LEAGUE NOTES.

It's so long since Brooklyn beat the Tigers, makes the Detroit outfield as formidable as the German army. He is now leading Cobb and Crawford.

Veach, batting like a house afire for the Tigers, makes the Detroit outfield as formidable as the German army. He is now leading Cobb and Crawford.

The Braves could be pushed just so far; then they turned on the speeding Phillies and administered a regular old fashioned trimming.

Hans Lohr plays as if his heart is always in the game, for he is always trying. Hans need only deliver and he'll share more of a following in New York than he did in the Quaker City.

Bill James, the demon workman of the Braves last year, has not pitched a game this season. When the big fellow does get going watch the Stallings clan climb.

Chicago fans will have a chance to see Joe Tinker at short again. He will play the short field for the Chicks until Smith, who was spiked in the hand, recovers.

Other teams may fear the Washington baseball club, but not the Yanks. They treat Johnson, the human Krupp, with the same respect they would accord a bushier.

Branch Rickey is in a quandary as to the exact definition of a balk. He appealed to Ban Johnson without success. Perhaps some Brown rooster will help him out.

Frank Allen, the portside slinger, once with the Robins, but now hurling for the Pittsburg Peds, is the latest to enter the no-hit ranks. He shut out the St. Louis Miners without a bingle.

WELSH'S EARNINGS

Somebody has figured up that since Freddie Welsh beat Willie Ritchie in England he has cleared up $54,500 in this country. Seventeen bouts are named in the clean-up down through April 20. Freddie's share of the first Charley White go in New York is given as $11,000. The next largest sum is given as $7,500 when he fought Jimmy Duffy in Buffalo last November. In addition $5,000 is figured in for his stage services and then a quarter of the whole business deducted for Harry Pollok, his manager, leaving net profit for Freddie of about $45,000.

Those other figures may be all right but the $7,500 from the Queensberry A. C. looks like some pretty well boosted baseball attendance figures.

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED

Chris Nichols as manager for Jim Prokos called at The Standard yesterday and stated Prokos would accept the challenge issued for a match by "Bull" Olsen, the terrible Swede of New York. The match to be at catch weights best two falls out of three and a date to be announced within two weeks, the match to take place in St. John. Prokos states as he intends residing in St. John he feels it a duty to meet all comers.
