Fredericton, N. B., Aug. 12 .- (Special)-Abou 400 excursionists from Coles Island and other points in Queens county, ar-rived here by the steamer Aberdeen at 4 o'clock this, afternoon. Their stay in. the city was brief but they managed to Div. I.-E. H. Burnett, J. Brittain, R. B. Clarke, A. E. Eastman, H. Hurley, J. D. McBeath, W. E. Trites, C. P. Wright. Visit a number of points of interest and appeared to enjoy themselves. The Aber-deen started on here stearn trip at 6 o'clock. The proceeds of the excursion will go to the new Episcopal church at the Narrows.

The influx of non-resident big game hunters to the province this coming season promises to be even greater than last year, when all previous records were broken

The hunting season does not open until September 15th, but already leading guides on the Tobique and Miramichi have about all the engagements they can fill. George Carnegie, of Pittsburg, nephew of the steel king, will spend a fornight on the Miramichi with William Griffon as guide. This will be his third successive trip to New Brunswick. Among others who contemplate a hunting trip to the province this season are Ralph Pulitzer, of New York World, and Bishop Jaggar, of Southern Ohio.

Henry Braithwaite, the veteran guide, who lately returned from the Miramichi, reports big game more plentiful than ever befare.

S., Aug. 14-(Special)--Peter Fraser, collector of inland revenue for Pictou division, which includes Cape Breton, seized an illicit still Saturday on the premises of Alex. Ingram, merchant tailor, at North Sydney. The still was in part of the building occupied by Mr. Ingram used as a dwelling, the worm being enclosed in a roller top desk, while copper pot was in an adjoining room. It was not in operation when found but bore evidences of having been considerably so some time previous. The still was worth about $200 and had a capacity of about twenty-five gallons a day. Ingram, who is considered a highly esteemed citizen, was placed under arrest. The building in which the distillery was located is directly across the street from the customs house and where the sub-collector of inland revenue has his offices. Toronto Yacht Club House Burned.
