开架 A very lean pig, on a windy day, Stood alone by a garden gate; He couldn't get in. for the gate was locked, And sadly he moaned o'er his fake. Then he wiped his eyes with a ourl of his tail,
And gracefully stood on his ear,
And a trembling tear coursed down his spine,
Till his face turned the color of cuir. His snoot grew flat, and gray were his locks, When a knot-hole round he espied; And he sat on the silken folds of his paw, And peered through that loop hole wide. He saw the sun in a golden beam, Glint its rays on a bucket of mash, And his porcine feelings we'led upin his breest, And he went through that hole with a dash

Then his optic fell on some CATTLE SPICE,
As he glanced o'er the garden green;
And he smacked his lips and distended his With a relish uncommonly keen. He loaded his skin till it cou'dn't hold more And his sides began to expand His face got cheeky; stout grew his limbs, And he left for his native land. He reached the hole at the side of the gate And jumped for that circular c ack When his febrile pulse felt a normal shock And he fell en the broad of his back. And the Coroner sat on the fat remains Of that porker in his pride: And this was the verdict the Jury gave: 'Died from a swelled inside."

The whitest and worst looking hair resumes its youthful beauty by its use. It does not dye the hair, but strikes at the roct and fills it with new life and coloring matter.

The first application will do good: you will see the NATURAL COLOR returning every day, and
