MAYOR DAVID GROSS

30,000 Polish Troops Marching on Berlin

Ebert Government Orders 5th Division to Meet Them.

FRANKFURT-ON-ODER

TAKEN.

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 2.—A Polish army of 30,000 men is marching on Berlin, according to a dispatch received here.

Gustave Norke, a member of the Ebert cabinet in charge of military affairs, is said to have ordered the fifth German division to meet the Poles.

For fifteenth place there was also an interesting contest. It was uncertain as to who would be elected.

The race was between Mr. A. Schreier, Mr. George Ahrens and Mr. W.

P. Rasmussen. Not until No. 12, the poll, was heard from was the result known. The vote at No. 12 put

Mr. Schreier in with 900 votes.

Mr. Ahrens' total was 896 and Mr.

Rasmussen's 801.

The results from all polling subdivisions except Nos. 6 and 12 were in his favor. It was not until 10.15 o'clock that No. 12 reported and relieved the tension.

French Opinion

of Peace Issues

Humanite on Clemenceau's Attitude on League.

GOVERNMENT SAYS HE AND

WILSON HAVE SAME GOAL.

PARIS, Jan. 2. (By William Philip Simms).—On the eve of formal conference, the peace capital of the world is being swept by a battle between pessimism and optimism. Warned by Premier Clemenceau that the road to Peace probably will not be strewn with roses, together with his admission that he is not opposed to a continuation of armed alliances on land and sea, the opposition element in France is freely criticizing the Premier's policy as dangerous and predicting that long debates will feature the deliberations.

Despite the fact that the outcome of these apparent differences now seems doubtful, the frank discussion of debatable issues at this time is believed by high personages in both

London and Paris, to assure a complete understanding and make the formal conferences much briefer than was anticipated.

The man in the street is blowing hot and cold. The public is noticeably keener for the peace congress to get under way. In the meantime, two currents of opinion are clashing.

The Humanite, which reflects one, says: "Premier Clemenceau and Foreign Minister Pichon have formulated their conception of peace. It is a raw contradiction of President Wilson's. Let us unfold ourselves. The Allies ideas lack unity now. Then where will the conference bring us?"

Government circles, however, maintain that Clemenceau and Wilson have the same goal and merely express themselves differently.

"The peace of the world will not endure unless France is made secure," declares the Temps. "This is the keystone of Clemenceau's program.

Undoubtedly he will insist at the peace conference upon strong frontiers and powerful alliances both on land and sea in sufficient force to repel any hidden aggression. Providing a league of nations would permit this, it is expected he will favor it.

If a league of nations would fall short of his ideas in this regard, he will doubtless oppose it. It is understood that, like other peace delegates, he is willing to be shown.

Clemenceau, it is certain will fight for the complete safety of France in one form or another, and even his opponents admit he is rightly named

"The Tiger."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—"Republican attacks on the league of nations are paving the way for Roosevelt's candidacy for the presidency,"

Senator Lewis of Illinois, Democratic whip of the U. S. Senate, declared in a speech replying to Senators

Knox and Lodge, two of the league's most persistent Republican critics.

LARGE FORCES TO BE

SENT AGAINST.

BERLIN, Jan. 2.—Herr Novke, the newly appointed minister of the army and navy, has ordered the army of large German forces to oppose the Polish invasion of German territory.

Much alarm was felt here today regarding the Polish advance.
