The [illegible] married in 1857, and have four children, two sons and two daughters, both sons being now in attendance at University College, Toronto.

[illegible] has seven brothers and [illegible] sisters; his mother is dead, but his father is still living, residing with his sons in the township of Garafraxa, county of Wellington.

JOSEPH GOULD,

EXETER.

THE subject of this biographical sketch was born in the township of Uxbridge on the 29th December, 1[illegible], and settled in [illegible] was of Independ[illegible] spring of [illegible] remaining [illegible] were then [illegible] Pennsylvania, all [illegible] was very limited, owing to the great difficulty in obtaining [illegible] he was taught those habits of economy and industry which he has [illegible] through life. Boyhood assisted his father to clear up his [illegible] knowledge of building, which has been of the utmost service to [illegible] struck out, resolving, unaided, to push his fortune in [illegible] village of Uxbridge. In this [illegible] sides of reverses [illegible] possessed [illegible] As we [illegible] [illegible] early [illegible] his most [illegible]

[illegible] W. [illegible] by the [illegible] [illegible] perfectly well [illegible]

[illegible] was [illegible] the last [illegible] [illegible] To be [illegible]