

from the fort or battery with the number of guns before specified, and again on his final departure at the expiration of his government; and he shall be further entitled to be saluted by such other forts or dependencies of his government as he may visit in his official capacity; but these latter salutes shall be repeated at each place only once in twelve months.

If he shall visit within the precincts of his government any one of Her Majesty's ships or vessels, he shall be saluted by the said ship with the same number of guns, either on his going on board or his leaving her; but if he shall visit on the same day several ships in the same port, he shall be saluted by only one of them; and although his visits to the same ship may be repeated, he shall be saluted by her only once in 12 months, at each Port or Colony within the precincts of his government; but when he shall embark on the final termination of his government, he shall be entitled to be saluted with the same number of guns from any of Her Majesty's ships which may be ordered to receive him.

When Governors or Lieutenant-governors quit their governments on leave of absence, they shall be entitled to the same salutes on their departure and on their return to their governments as they would have been entitled to on their first assuming them, or on their final departure from them.

Article 4.—All Lieutenant-governors administering the government shall be entitled to the salutes
