FORESTRY ISSUE The Fruitswickan

VOL. 65, No. 20.

FREDERICTON, N. B., THURSDAY, MARCH 21, 1946

S. R. C.

RESULTS

PRESIDENT

Here in are chronicled the events that spiced Woman's World for a Week. Before continuing, a reminder for sveryone-though woman controlled destinies the eternal male was found to be indispenable-as usual. Someone should have told us that what the average woman wants is a strong, inflexible man who can be wrapped around her finger.

Co-Ed Week

Sunday was the beginning of it all Defenceless men were dragged to church, to S. C. M. and to the Newman Club-a strange place for most, to be sure. They were merely sacrifices to the Amazons' God. A week of clear skies and full moon was their reward.

MURRAY SEELEY Shall we leave them to them-

Pays Off

VICE-PRESIDENT

Fellow students:---I should like to tak this opportun ity to sincerely thank all those who supported me in the past election for the presidency of the S. R.

of Rep by Pop. What say, Fresh-man where is all this avowed in-terest in student government? Al Cameron then moved that Dr. Argne be named as the faculty May I take this opportunity of thanking those students who sup-norted mailed mailed as the faculty chairman of this year's non-athletic awards committee. Then our politician friend from

Page Litert

Price Seven Cents

The usual meeting of the S. R. C.

Eric Teed then arose and read the proposed change in the constitu-tions and the council decided to change printed, so there is no need of yours truly mentioning them here. One thing I would like to mention is the small number of people stiending this meeting, esecially since Mr. Teed's report directly concerns the Freshman ary have 100 copies of the propos took place Friday, March 13. Mr.

and jump to Monday? Monday even-ing had all sorts of entertainment at the co-eds disposal. The Rough-both Up the Hill and at Alexender necks slew the Beavermen first at college for their support and vote the composited of the constrainty of the Students the co-eds disposal. The Rough-both Up the Hill and at Alexender

Proposed Constitution

Changes To Be Published

covermen first at covermen first at collego for their support and vote and later at a woe in the recent S. R. C. elections. my duties as president, that both During the college year 1946-47 those who voted and those who did we will be freed with numerous and a basketball game and later at a woe in the recent S. R. C. elections. couple of innocents got vp and we will be faced with numercus and not vote for me, may be truly gratidanced-only a rumor of course. difficult problems in particular those fied. the alite, however, borrowed con-cert tickets from browbeaten moth-ers and escorted their swains to a quiet evening at the Normal School. Tuesday was bridge night. The iads made deals with the lassies and democratic and efficient S. R. C. pol-continued to make passes far into icy can be formulated, one which the night. Some potent characters will be to the bnefit of the student went to the chow, but in most cases body as a whole. that was reserved for-Wednesday night. Love lettersah me (especially requested in ad-vance it furnished a "subtle" hint. It was lovely Weanesday, wasn't it? They sat side by side in the moonlight Her soft sweet hair brushed his cheek

He sighed to himself in the moonlight, Thank God its only for a week. Thursday the ladies took their men to the Boxing meet. A sad mistake for it gave observant males a few hints on self preservation. One couple went to see "Three Strangors". They were sitting in the next row back. She thoughtfully picked up the Van Johnson type for--

Friday night, that much heralded Friday night-welf howls and whatnct. Can you tell me what was dif-ferent about it? Of course there was the cinema, a long walk, biology and Bert C's hopefuls from slopportunity knocks.

Saturday night is the loneliest night in the week. The gym was (pointing at the floor).

-M. SEELEY. PRESIDENT'S

MESSAGE

0

D

(Continued on Page Eight.)

ests of the university. --KATE GCUGH. Sincerely, C. L. ATYEO. ALEXANDER CANADIAN COLLEGE CAMPUS

intended to engage in subversive. activities. Pat is trying to maka up his mind whether to form a group to join in opposition to the S. R. C.

Next George Boyd was nominated as chief raturning officer for the re-election between John Gandy and Within two months Alexander could stand for stuffed shirts, liked

SUMMER SCHOLARS By Dorothy Harley and Bev. Echlin Knowledge is in year-round de mand, judging by the increased summer-school facilities offered by nearly all universities during the coming vacation. These summer the during the increased that is pressident of to evacuate during the spring that. It is popularly felt that Dean Parr sessions are intended chiefly for It is popularly felt that Dean Parr each class and the presidents of the bas dene a wonderful job of recon- the Ladies Society and A. A. A.

rush-up courses. Regular summer verting the army huts into more schools such as Queen's Summer comfortable living quarters and in Radio Institute and McGill's French handling the activities on the Alex-School will of course operate us ander campus. The past athletic activities have not

At St. Francis Xavier University, been as we could have wished them: special summer school will start but considering that everything was around one week after the regular handled by our own fellows and term ends. They will finish around what with lack of equipment a cer-the middle of September, one week tain measure of success was attain-offered are in first year subjects and are being held specifically for exservice mer although other stu-

ex-service mer although other stu-dents may enroll. The courses offered during the summer term at Mount Allison U. will consist probably of rogular first and second year subjects. The term will begin on May 23 with the example is process of formation of the second year subjects and the freshman from the "Hill." The intergroup heat-string has been possible by the prompt action There have been many changes to fering the usual educa-There have been many changes to fering the usual educa-goiten stales on the balcory, the lights on so that people could see if the boys were slaying another piece or just uning up. But what a "ruff" time. Overbeard from various— Audrey G. -Goly, I, wish therid the series are banched on More to come. A dauge orchestra selling for 335 a this year, with more to come. A dauge orchestra selling for 335 a this year, with more to come. A dauge orchestra selling for 335 a this year, with more to come. A dauge orchestra selling for 335 a this year, with more to come. A dauge orchestra selling for 335 a this year, with more to come. A dauge orchestra selling for 335 a this year, with more to come. A dauge orchestra selling for 335 a this year, with more to come. A dauge orchestra selling for 335 a this year, with more to come. A dauge orchestra selling for 335 a this year, with more to come. A dauge orchestra selling for 335 a this year. Stale or stales on the beginning of this term to for in seeking offers but h rejection of sourday and the Seniors are benched on More this series and the flat and set the series are the out to the Flat mage of speech writing and production a bus. There are other changes for. The sectors set lime, and the series offering the usual educa-tors the understale data. The sectors are benched on More plans to us next time. Bit G. -Morday sees me a back-angen. There are other changes for. The sectors data set to the Flat mage of the to the flat mage of the profuse of the more flat on the profuse of the sectors and bardenering. There are other changes for. The should at let "spring lever" affect the area another three weeks, which has for another three weeks, which has for another three weeks, which has for another three weeks, which Bli G. - Honday sees me a bache-r again. Jack the J.-Look at that mess, plans for a five year University Director of Drama at Queen's the law we write our Freshman fin-

S

Have you a job? No, not yet. This question and answer is heing heard more and more frequently as the days roll by towards summer,