Sound Off

10 — The BRUNSWICKAN JANUARY 30, 1976

"Childishness displayed" protest--one more time

Dear Editor:

It is only due to standard courtesy that I use such a civil salutation. The article "Childishness displayed" seriously calls into question your ability as an editor, much less one of integrity and honesty.

As a freshman, I have been so long bombarded by such displays of gross inefficiency and damaging inaccuracy from "Canada's Oldest Official Student Publication", that until that infamous article of January 23, I was numbed to further assinations of character, name and stand.

Other than your ambiguous all to general preamble or prattle with its "gee - what happened to fun", theme the only line of truth that appeared was "several residents of Tibbits Hall taken to the infirmary for treatment"

To begin with we are not the horrible "over a hundred". Perhaps some could say naughty ninety-nine but on that night the participants of Jones numbered joined by at least four other residences, male and female.

Watching them leave with their "deadly" arsenal of shaving cream, computer punchings and the occasional roll of "dangerous" toilet paper, I did not get the impression that my fellow residents of Jones were the animals you made them out to be, leaving an uninformed reader in the dark as to the true situation. Why is Jones singled out in your literary piece of trash? Why must we take the journalistic blame for others' actions as well as our own?

Next, the Jones House Men who are indeed more mature than the simple-minded adolescent who must have written that "editorial" (best guess, Tom Benjamin) did not want "to restrict pubs in a nearby building". Our position was to support other residences who found they were suffering damages due to pubs in that "nearby building". Yet Jones is dragged through some muddy typescript to only in the twenties. They were answer for this too. How an issue as remote as this, fanned initially by the media to the point where it came close to splitting off an on campus student feelings and togetherness, is brought in and blamed on us, I'll never know. If you would care to check your misinformation (which is doubtful) the Board of Dons would surely set you straight.

As for our alleged special treatment in discipline, I would emphasize that members of Jones are treated no better or worse than any other student on or off campus. You imply that being in residence makes us immune to ordinary proceedings. As you are well aware but saw fit not to print this is not so. You also seem to advocate, in your closing sentence that especially harsh treatment is our just due. Would boiling in oil or merely a flogging suffice? Forced reading of the Bruns is out though. That would be classified cruel and

C.U.P. would write and publish an article of this kind is a horrifying thought. If that article is any example of "stories ... written with an analytical perspective", one shudders to think of the future of our national student press. We are due an apology of the most open kind. It will be noteworthy if someone really takes Alden Christian responsibility for that article and Rm. 209, Jones and not deliberate. The ill-fated wrongdoer was not a member of Jones House.

Play it again Mike

apologizes to our residence with

It is also interesting that a quote from Benjamin Franklin should appear in headlines in the same issue. Tom, my advice is to forget it. You just proved you aren't and never will be old Ben reincarnate.

some show of real feeling.

Yours sincerely,

As for your derogatory remarks regarding the characters of the men of Jones House, you may only ask the residents of York Manor in Nashwaaksis what they think of our "maturity and regard for others"

The idea of a double standard existing regarding resident stuangered by the accusations and dents' unruly conduct and disciinaccuracies contained in your plinary procedure is something imagined on your part. You have You state that "Initiations, unjustly moulded this incident, and razzing frosh and residence raids inaccuracies about it, to express were a part of university life years your own displeasure with the ago ... " Such things are still part of residence system. Your argument university life because they still does not stand. I suggest you get exist. You go on to describe the some solid and appropriate facts number of students involved in this upon which to build any case to incident whom you say are Jones support your accusations (stated House members. To set you 'and implied). It is unfortunate that straight, there are 100 men who we do not have the facilities we live in Jones House, no more. I need at UNB but directing witnessed the number of fellows dissatisfaction of this toward the from Jones House who left to residence system is unjust, pointparticipate in this act of retribution less and unproductive.

toward the ladies of Tibbits Hall. I An apology and a corrected, can say there were 25 House updated version of the incident is members at the most. You should called for.

A Gentleman of Jones. It should be pointed out that the most unfortunate result of the incident was accidental in cause Mike Mersereau JANUARY 30, 1

BY-I ARTICLE | Duties

the Executive Com S. 1 The President (a) be the Chief Ex Union and shall b general managemen (b) be responsible observation of the Ac Constitution, By-Lav the Union. (c) appoint three two-thirds approval whom shall preside a (d) be a non-vot ad hoc. (e) present an annu activities at a m immediately prior taking office.

(f) present a progr committee to the SR assuming office. (g) may appoint a two-thirds approval (h) hire an Adminis approval of the SRC (i) nominate studen Senate and the SUE with two-thirds appr (i) present a repor behalf of the SRC at meetings. (k) except as other Constitution or these the chairman of all SI committees with two SRC. S.2. The Internal Union shall: (a) assist the Presid an internal nature. (b) in the event o President, assume th duties and responsib (c) be Chairman Committee. (d) be the Chief Ret SRC elections with p two-thirds approval S.3. The External V Union shall: (a) assist the Presid an external nature.

(b) in the event of President and the Int assume that office w responsibilities. (c) be Chairman Committee.

(d) be a SRC repres (e) be the Public R S.4. The Comptrolle (a) supervise all fin

Dear Editor: In response to your editorial of January 23, "Childness displayed", I suggest you get your facts straight before you use any example of resident students' behaviour as a leverage to express your own dissatisfaction with the residence system. As a Gentleman unusual punishment. of Jones House, and one who did That an editor who will soon head not participate in the activity you describe, I am offended and

If you are an engineer, this chair could be yours.

This is where you could find yourself if you become a Maritime Engineering Officer in today's Canadian Armed Forces. The Master Engineering Control centre of one of our new DDH 280 Destroyers.

No boilers. No stokers. No sweat!

The power within these beautiful ships comes from jet turbine engines. The machinery that heats, cools, ventilates and provides water throughout these ships is the latest.

Maritime Engineering Officers on these ships work with some of the most sophisticated equipment in the world...with expertly trained men who are as proud of their work as they are of their ships.

If you're studying engineering, think about this Officer's job. It's a very special one. It could take you anywhere in the world!

Directorate of Recruiting & Selection, National Defence Headquarters. Box 8989, Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0K2

Please send me more information about opportunities in the Canadian Forces of Maritime Engineers.

NAME	ADDRESS
CITY	PROV.
POSTAL CODE	UNIVERSITY
COURSE	YEAR

VOLVED

WITH THE CANADIAN

ARMED

FORCES

Dear Editor:

editorial.

It seems that this newspaper (if that's what you call it) has returned to the mentality of years gone by, when generalizations, lies, and failure to get the facts were the results of trying to reach publication deadlines, or to put forth an article or Editorial, which make the views of the paper known to all.

find out where the rest came from.

The editorial last week concern-ing CHILDISHNESS within the Residence System is just this. The editorial stated "Over a hundred residents of Jones House visited Tibbits Hall last week - with startling results. The event ended with several residents of Tibbits Hall taken to the infirmary for treatment.'

The article doesn't mention what the ladies from Tibbit's were doing the previous evening, celebrating Tibbits Week by entering and doing their own little deeds in the Men's Residences, while everyone slept, which is what started the unfortunate incidents that follow-

But to state that all the members of Jones were involved and only Jones members is just pure ignorance of the true facts, or the laziness of the author of the article to check out the facts. There were no more than 20 Jones members involved, the remaining 80 or so were persons impersonating Jones members, I suppose.

What is that crap about the restriction of Pubs at McConnell. No one ever asked my views about the noise or damages

Also what does "the incident is being handled within the residence system - luckily for the Jones House residents" supposed to mean. Tibbits Hall is a residence as are Jones and the others involved. These incidents do not affect the rest of the University or Students at UNB in the least. It involves only the people in residence. Therefore it's the Residence System's business ONLY.

I hope the writer of the article will receive just punishment when the facts are known, and that it will discourage such similarily poorly written articles in the future. I have never seen such a poorly researched article with so little attempt to secure the facts, and then to write an opinion in a newspaper, which may unfortun-ately be taken as the truth by some people who read it.

As a Jones House member, I feel justified in demanding a full-page correction and apology to the Jones House members by the Brunswickan, AND a personal apology signed by the author of the article to be also published. David M. Goguen 235 Jones House more letters on page 12

(b) be responsible for of the Constitution of Board and be the C Board. (c) prepare an ann accordance with generally accepted p (d) supervise the for mittees of the Adminandle continuing Comptroller conside (e) provide liasion b tion Committee, th Committee and the S (f) present the minut the Administrative regularly constituted (g) appoint students Board with two-thirds

ARTICLE II Duties a the Members of the S.T. (a) Members ar all SRC meetings. Wh of the SRC has fail regular meetings with SRC may, on two-thir that members positi member shall not be e at the first election fo (b) Each member (associated with their that they may fairly r and views of that ele (c) Each member sh on at least one comm tee of the SRC and to u of the obligations of st may be assigned to the to time by the Presid ARTICLE III Electi S.1. General Provisi (a) The "Fall Election before the fourth We (d) The "Spring Elec or before the sec February. (c) There shall be representative (herei a "seat" in these E Faculty or Departme There shall be a repr one seat for every 300 or Department. Departments in which 300, and are within