

Blood and Thunder

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Rm. 35, Student Union Building, UNB Campus
DEADLINE: 5 p.m. Tuesday

Members only

To Whom It May Concern:

As a long standing member of the College Hill Social Club there is a particular matter of interest I would like to bring to light regarding members' rights. It seems fitting that a member (who incidentally is a shareholder in this non-profit organization) should be allowed certain inalienable privileges, the most important being immediate access before those persons whom have neglected or decided against becoming a member.

I would appreciate whomever decides to respond to this letter to explain to me the purpose of buying a membership if he/she is required to wait, in sometimes exhaustive line-ups, with people who have not purchased memberships yet are allowed access with payment of a two dollar cover charge. This is not to say that these "non-members" should be denied access. They should, however, be required to wait until an appropriate number of people have filtered out in order to make room.

Those in charge of dictating the policies of the C.H.S.C. should take heed to the policy of the Cosmopolitan whereby members are never denied access and people whom choose to pay a cover charge are required to wait until there is enough room to accommodate them.

I pause and reflect about the days of old when "members only" meant "members only".

Poet
apologizes

Dear Editor'

A poem of mine appeared in the 02 October Brunswickan entitled "Ariel Answering" and attributed to a fictional I.C. North. The lines were written, on the spur of the moment, in response to Kwame Dawes' "Calliban Prospering," a poem that was published in the previous issue.

I should have considered my words more carefully: it has since become evident to me that the spirit of jest in which they were chosen is not reflected in the imagery or the tone. I have nothing but respect for Mr. Dawes, both as an individual and as a writer, and I apologize for any pain caused him or others by my poor judgement.

Get your facts straight

Dear Editor:

When we read Ms. Grimes' letter to the editor suggesting that the University ask Mr. K.C. Irving to help fund the financially strapped Harriet Irving Library, it became perfectly clear that she does not know the facts.

The Harriet Irving Library was so named by the University in the HOPE that a donation would be forthcoming. In fact, Mr. Irving came to the official opening of the facility, said "Thank-you very much," and left. No donation. No nothing. Why would he be interested in donating anything now? We would be willing, however, to consider changing the name of the Harriet Irving Library to the Student Union Inc. MEMORIAL Library providing that the Student Union Inc. would agree to live up to its end of the deal.

Empty threat

Dear Editor:

As a co-coach of the CHSR "Bunnies of Death" football team preparing for this year's Media Bowl, I feel that I must warn you that the smug overconfidence that your team exhibits in your esteemed weekly is thoroughly unfounded. We have a tremendous team assembled this year--we have kept only our best returning starters, cut the dead weight and weak of heart (who are probably better suited to your team), we had a great draft, and signed a number of very talented free agents.

In short, we are prepared to play football the way it was meant to be played. To paraphrase the great Vince Lombardi: "There is a misperception about football. People say that football is a contact sport. It isn't. Dancing is a contact sport--football is a collision sport." We realize that it will be physically painful for us to win; the trick will be to make sure that your team experiences much more pain.

You see, dear Editor, we have adopted the perspective of inhabitants of coal mining towns in central Pennsylvania. Football is more than a game. It is a way of life, a philosophy whose central credo is that nirvana can only be attained by inflicting a concussion upon yourself while using your head to crack an opponent's sternum, or at best, to hit an opponent so hard that his internal organs ooze out of his mouth.

So, you were warned. Perhaps you should suggest to your team that they stick to dancing....

Menacingly yours,

Dr. X.

Realistic fines

Dear Editor:

When our children do something wrong, let's beat them until they are dead and/or let's charge a student, with a parking sticker and with three years tuition fees paid in full, $10 for parking in a staff/faculty parking lot.

Come on, boys, a $3 or $4 parking ticket would do as well to get your point across, and it wouldn't affect the amount of groceries that were bought that week. Unless, of course, you feel that being fair to the people that pay your salaries is ridiculous, if this is the reason, I applaud you.

Sincerely,
Garth Reid

WE KNOW PIZZA!

FAST Let's face it, some pizzerias are faster than other pizzerias. We know the best pizza is hot pizza. And a hot pizza means it has to get to your door fast — fresh from the oven. If you live in Grecoville and your pizza doesn't get to your door within 30 minutes of your order, it's free! Absolutely, positively, free. Sound impressive? That's how seriously we take our 30 minute guarantee.

FRESH There's only one way to make sure pizza dough is as fresh as it can be. We make our dough fresh every day. Not frozen, fresh — every day. After all, we know how important dough is when you're making quality pizza. When you pick up that first piece and take a juicy bite... we think you'll agree... we know pizza!

SQUARE Round pizzas. They're everywhere. Round, round, round. They look the same, some even taste the same. We don't cut corners when it comes to making a delicious pizza. You'll recognize the Greco pizza by its unique square shape. And you'll love its juicy, delicious mouth-watering taste. So why settle for round when you can have square? You see, in Grecoville, we think a pizza that doesn't taste like all the other pizzas, shouldn't really look like all the other pizzas.

WE KNOW PIZZA... Why is Greco becoming Atlantic Canada's favorite pizzeria? We know pizza, that's why.

We use a high grade pizza sauce prepared exclusively for Greco Pizza Donair Restaurants and the finest mozzarella cheese available.

So the next time you're thinking of pizza, think of the people who know pizza. Greco Pizza Donair.
