Sea Cadets bound for Nova Scotia

Six members of the Streetsville Sea Cadets will leave July 15 for Nova Scotia and two weeks of training at the C.F.B. Cornwallis.

Peter Lazenby, John Taylor, Edmund Taylor, Laurence Erinson, Duncan Stacey and Paul Vickery were the first six to make their applications to the training program.

The 75 Sea Cadets were allowed six representatives to the training program. Sea Cadets from all over Canada will attend the two-week session.

The session will teach the Cadets how to train a division and how to take over without instruction and keep men busy. Part of their work will be out in dinghies.

For the boys who successfully complete the two-week course it means eligibility for a seven-week training program next summer.
