

I would, I believe, cross over to England with the hope of getting ultimately into British politics.
But there are the moorings of a restless spirit, and I do not mean I am to think seriously of them.
My place & home is Canada, and my work, what I have already commenced upon, and some which may I must discipline myself to the task.

I am glad you are going to finish up some work. I am sure you are doing too much. Affection with all my heart let me thank you for your goodness to me, & with highly grateful, believe me ever yours most truly & gratefully of the Government or loss of my own name to regret at this time, - It is only now that its significance to my life - which has been given over to the accomplishment of work - irrespective of likelihood - is beginning to make itself felt.

I felt it first in wondering if the strength, the zeal, and untiring effort would ever come back again. I seem to be getting past that or I rest, and believe it will;
