Ottawa, 13th July, 1905.

Sir,-

With reference to the account rendered by Constable W.T.Lee for services in connection with the prosecution of James Smith for selling liquor to Indians, I beg to inform you that it is observed that the Constable makes charges amounting to $4.62 in connection with the attendances before the Court of Appeal. Before this account can be properly taxed the Department desires to be advised why it was necessary for the Constable to attend before the Court of Appeal.

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.

D. J. McPhee, Esq.,

Indian Agent,

Orillia, Ont
