other meetings for a few days? Does she draw a salary from the funds of the Homu? if so, how much?

There will be more about this very gentle, kind lady who, when the May-or condemned the "like fate" manifesto, meekly said, "It was not written in that spirit." Dear lady! Then what "spirit!"

MRS. HUGH MACMATH.

This is the lady who did a little IN-VESTIGATION on her own account on the 24th of February, in much the same way as the Mayor, but with this difference, that instead of having Dr.

eliference, that instead of having Dr. Cha. and Dr. Sheard with her, she had hirs. Bowman ard Miss Allison, and thild there is a standard of the standard of hir barriers and the standard of hir barriers. The standard of half a minute's INVERS. After the doar was opened and the "Com. of Invest" went on to ether wards in the course of their thoroughness (wry real indeed in and found ny page suffering Frind ------ in trembling, and in tears (presume she was suffering the standard of the st The probability of the set of the

MRS. EOWMAN, MATRON AND HOUSEKEEPER.

Mrs. Bowman holds her office "at the Mrs. Bowman holds her office 'at the pleasure of the Board,' (which means the lady-majority-elique). Well she has a very trying position. She is the ape-cial frieng of Miss M. M. Sheis to 'do all in her power to pipmote the com-fort of the immates of the Home and is to follow the introductions of the Ex Com., etc. etc." THE EX. COMT-NINE WOMEN RE-

THE EX. COMT-NINE WOMEN RE-MEMBER111 Poor Mrs. Bowman!! at the mercy of nine women!!! Women like Mrs. M. C., Miss M. M., and Mrs. McM., and others. She may wish to do her duty in "promoting the comfort of the inmates," but when we all know that many of these NINE are bent on other matters than "the comfort of the inmates," how can "the comfort of the immates," how can we expect much from Mrs. Bowman, who knows full well that the "pleasure of the Board is the pleasure of Mrs. M. C. and her cliquel I challenge her to deny ful I regret to say that Mrs. Bow-man is hated by many of the patients, who call her a deril and a ling, but 1, in a way, feel sorry for her, for she is in-der batware two sholes and naivestites. dead between two stools, and naturally does not want to fall to the ground, so hold on to the NINE stool."

5

Miss ALLISON (HEAD NURSE). I knew this lady in botter days, when she was muring a friend of mine in the General Hospital. This lady came under the law of the NINE, and since she has been at this "Home" (not many she has been at this "Home" (not many months), which is not the same Miss Al-Hson ws at the General Hospital. I pity her more than I blame her. She is a slave to WOMEN, whose "pleasure" can dismlas her. Verity, this is a Palace of "power," "comfort," and "pleasure" of Ihe hanced by the "instructions" of the hanced by the "instructions" of the NINE. God save us from such an anomaly. Miss Allison Js, I regret to say, greatly disliked on account of her gen-erally defective ways. DR. M'LAREN-RESIDENT DOCTOR.

The MTLAREN-HESTIDENT DOCTOR Of this person I cannot find words that the decionary analogous to my con-tempt for him. He forgot the dignity of his office and constituted himself the Docrkeeger. He frequently wayled me at the prinner docr-tant the second broad of the distribu-tion of the second broad of the second broad of the second broad print the second broad broad of the second broad bro collar. This second "gentle, loving and kind" action was, I feel sure, prompt-ed by that "Unaware Angel," Mrs. Mor-timer Clark, the F. L. D. This so-cali-ed lady came up to me and asked ime my name. I also asked her her name, The second secon must get out of this." I stepped back half a pace, held up both hands, and said: "Now, Constable, do not put your hands on me and I will go out quietly, but don't touch me." The POLICEMANNS prime.

quiety, but don't touch me." The PGLICEMAN'S DUTY WAS TO HAYE STEPPED ASIDE AND LET ME PASS, but he dd not, and at ence handled me roughly, upon which I held on to the door post, relating this fliggal act (as I had a right to do af-ter my appeal). then said, "TH throt-Hayou," and he dd it effectually. Name, Cod Guessent at the kinne [no.

the yoay," and he did it effectually. New Col. Grassett at the ying in-vestigation which took place in his of-fice, said that a citizen had a right to protest against undue force, etc. etc., ster, thus confirming my right to the door post, etc. I left the building in a guiet, eaim, and dignitic manner, as became a Brillah officer and a gen-forcibly prompted by the Policeman. I met Mrs. M. C., and appealed to her against this brutal treatment, but that lady turned a deaf ear, and a solid PIESENCE.

Now my firm belief is that Policeman 86 had instruction from the LADY and from Dr. McLaren to handle me pretty roughly, and their instructions pretty roughly, and their instructions were faithfully, brutally and illegally carried out. The Invest. In Col. Grassett's

The Invest. In Col. Grassett's office was exactly similar to the THOROUGH INvest, at the H for L-a series of les-a bogus, a fare and a boah in-vest. My "CASE" was put In a clear, decidel and unvarying way, whilst Dr. McLaren said, "I THINK so," and

"WORDS to that effect," and other such varying words. Mr. Hunter and Mr. M. C. were present, (WNY? I know not-certainly not as witnesses), and I promply told each one as he volun-teered his lying statement, "You are a list," and truly so too, and THE TRUTH will prove L R was a case of listes against one-not here witnesses dates against one paint in the deter-dants against one paint the deteragainst one wincess, but three defen-dants against one plaintiff-no wit-nesses, at all, as such, and Col Gras-sett decided against me, and the "News," "Star," and "Tel," published the usual string of lies. In leaving the room, I turned to Col. Grassett and s.id; "Col onel. I calmly, coolly and without any excitement, "tell you that these per-sons are Hars." There was no vim, sons are mars. There was no viny vengeance, temper or anger, but the calmness of an ENGLISH officer and gentleman who can control his words and his temper in the presence of liars and cads, by a consciousness of THE TRUTH AND THE RIGHT, and THIS TRUTT! AND THE BIGHT, and the knowledge of the sartlife he is mak-ing of himself to "public opinion." which I hope will veer round to the RIGHT quarter and side with the 130 patients, whose good I am fighting for -as well, as against the wholesome ROBBERY. JOBERY, TMNORALITY and God knows what besides. But more of these sleewhere! a perfect brute to the pallents. He registers them, he is hated and foard by them. I have been told by Mrs. W that a Board lady told her. "That all these trubules were brought about BY DI. MLAREN-that they were going to get rids of hm," etc.

they were going to get rid of him," etc., etc. But they hold on to him because he is a useful tool in their hands, and they might find it difficult to get such another specimen of humanity! Away another spectree of humanity laway with such a follow, except that lask him, "Is he the official liar, who spoke to 'M, and E," on the bit of March' and maid that 'Col, "was the cause of all the recent trouble"." The had repeat-edly broken the rules." I challenge this liar to show one, or any rule I have broken.

exy scrakes the rules." I challenge this liar to show one, or any rule I have broken. FILTH. Dr. P. experiments in the platform at the annual meeting of 21st of March, and the News of 21st, took up the same words (Did Miss M. M. write this ar-ticle of nice lies?), that it was iargely accounted for by the plannbing and re-sources of the start of the same of the second start of while weats the "filth." I had oceasion to viet the second the second of the indices on the filth start of the second to the second start of second start interviewed the second start of the second of the indices on the filth the mask here if the second to the second start of second start interviewed in the second of the indices on the filth the second start interviewer indices and the second of the indices on the filth the second of the indices on the store of public ophysics interviewer indices of HECH the second start interviewer as the second of the second start interviewer second by the second second start DUST and FILTH for YEALSH in the second but all were carefully removed BE-FORE the Investigation. Comment is un-

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF 21ST MARCH, 1903. Having to bail Jane Dunwood out of the jail, I was a little late, so did not the jail, I was a little late, so did not hear the opening address, or Miss M. M.'s report. Of course I took a seat on the front bencht This was a meet-ing of les and dust throwing. I ex-peded to find the Bishop in the chair, as he was last year, and was surpris-ed to find the Mayor threat As the meeting was NOT TO HE THE TRUTH, ed the Mayor, who had so kindly grant-ed the famous interview! This again, was SO natural I congratulate the Dishop!—The Mayor having taken sides